

GEORGE BUNGLE, I'M IN HUMOR TO HEAR YOU SPOUTING ABC'S. YOU ARE A LOT OF THAT BRAND OF BROADNESS TOO. WELL, ANYBODY HAVE ONE OF THOSE BROADS. ALL YOU NEED IS A RT MEMORY AND AN ATTITUDE.

ELLA IN THE BABY OUT. MY THINGS WILL BE FOR A MERRY SHOULD LOSE MY IT MAY BE HARD HIS MILLIONS, BE EASY TO SPEND EUROPE - SHAKE S WITH A CLEVER WOMAN!

ZLES ME HOW VA TALK TO SOME PEOPLE, TIGHT AWAY THEY TAKE IT PERSONAL!

... AND YOU WANT BE ABLE TO HEAR IT

AN AUTO AND WHILE THE STORE SOMEONE LOVELY VASE IN MY N'T UNDERSTAND IT?

VOL. 82. NO. 288.

WALL STREET LEADERS IN STOCK LIST TOUCH NEW 1930 LOWS

Closing Prices Range 1 to 15 Points Lower — Selling Is Only Moderately Active but Practically All Groups Display Heaviness

BEAR SELLING IS CALLED A FACTOR

Wheat and Cotton Markets Also Decline, the Former Reaching Bottom Level for the Season — Index Number Reveals Setbacks

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 21.—Share prices again slumped rapidly in the stock market today, bringing to close three weeks of almost steady liquidation. Closing prices ranged 1 to 15 points lower. Selling was only moderately active, but practically all groups displayed persistent heaviness. In the final trading a few issues rallied a point or two in short covering, but on the whole closing quotations were near the bottom, many important shares showing no recuperative power.

The price index of 90 representative issues showed a net loss at the close of 4.6 points, establishing a new low ground for the period since the middle of November. As reckoned on day to day closing quotations. During the middle of Wednesday's session, however, the aggregate level was lower. The index calculated on 1 p. m. ticker prices of that day was 1/2 point under today's final level. Total sales for the two-hour session fell slightly under 2,000,000 shares.

Bear Selling Is a Factor.
There was a feeling in brokerage circles that professional bear selling was a relatively new and important factor in the further decline today than it was during the wholesale liquidation earlier in the week. Almost complete absence of important supporting orders appeared to encourage this type of selling. Important banking interests, however, see no danger of a serious panic of selling, with the public largely out of the market. Stocks while business reports continue encouraging.

Secretary Mellon's statement on the tariff measure, endeavoring to quiet fears of impairment of foreign trade, was without stabilizing effect upon the speculative markets. The wheat and cotton markets, which have moved closely in sympathy with stocks of late also declined. July wheat dropped to new low for the movement, and July cotton tumbled to about 22, a low also reaching a new bottom level for the season.

Week-end business news was meagre and for the most part unencouraging. Reports of price cutting in the export petroleum business were partially offset by announcement by Humble Oil that it had changed its plan about ceasing crude purchases in six Texas counties. The week-end business and mercantile reviews pointed to further seasonal slackening in industry and improvement in retail trade of summer apparel.

U. S. Steel at 1930 Low.
U. S. Steel dropped 4 points to a new 1930 low at 154, and closed at 153 1/2. American Can dropped about 6 points to a new low, close to 110, and closed at the bottom. Other shares reaching new low ground for the year or longer included Bethlehem Steel, Sears Roebuck, International Harvester and Rock Island.

Auburn Auto dropped 5 1/2 points to a new low at 95, compared to 100 1/2 in 1929, and closed at 94 1/2. The chemical tumbled 15 points to a new low at 23 1/2 and closed at the bottom. Eastman Kodak, Columbian Carbon and American Tobacco closed 7 to 9 points lower.

Foreign exchanges generally receded after yesterday's action. Sterling cables closed at $4.85 1/2, after reaching $4.86 yesterday.

Stock prices with other tables and market news will be found on pages 7A, 8A and 9A.

Anthracite Wage Parley June 30.
PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, today announced that the conference for a new wage agreement between the anthracite operators and miners would begin in New York, June 30.

FAIR, NO CHANGE IN TEMPERATURE TONIGHT, SUNDAY

THE TEMPERATURES.
At 8 a. m. 84; 9 a. m. 84; 10 a. m. 84; 11 a. m. 84; 12 noon 84; 1 p. m. 84; 2 p. m. 84; 3 p. m. 84; 4 p. m. 84; 5 p. m. 84; 6 p. m. 84; 7 p. m. 84; 8 p. m. 84; 9 p. m. 84; 10 p. m. 84; 11 p. m. 84; 12 midnight 84.
Relative humidity at noon 52 per cent.
Yesterday's high, 81 (4.30 p. m.); low, 64 (5:30 a. m.).

Official forecast for St. Louis and vicinity: Mostly fair tonight and tomorrow; not much change in temperature.

Missouri: Mostly fair tonight and tomorrow; not much change in temperature.

Illinois: Mostly fair tonight and tomorrow; not much change in temperature.

Sunrise, 7:30; sunset, 7:50; tomorrow, 4:55.

Stage of the Mississippi, 19.6 feet, a rise of 0.6.

Next Week's Weather Outlook.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—The weather outlook for the week beginning Monday, June 23: For the Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys: Mostly fair and rather warm over Lower Missouri Valley; local showers and mostly moderate temperatures over northern sections.

PLANS ORDINANCE TO TAX MINIATURE GOLF COURSES

Alderman Eilers Wants Them to Pay Yearly License of $50.
Alderman Ralph Eilers, of the Twenty-sixth Ward today requested the City Council's office to draft an ordinance that would require operators of "Tom Thumb" golf courses to obtain a permit from the Board of Public Service before establishing a course and to pay a license fee of $50 a year for their operation.

The permit requirement, Eilers explained, would compel operators to file an application setting forth the intended location of the course and this would enable the board to determine, before the course is built whether its establishment violates the zoning laws. He declared that the courses are now being built and operated without regard for zoning regulations and are invading restricted residential sections. Because the courses are business establishments, he said, they should be required to pay a license fee.

Eilers said he also intended to discuss with the Board of Public Service the question of closing time for golf courses. Some of the courses, he pointed out, are open until 2 or 3 a. m. and are a source of annoyance to the neighborhood.

LARGE JOSHUA TREE BURNS

Fire in Roosevelt Monument Park Attributed to Vandals.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 21.—A magnificent Joshua tree, thought to have been the largest of the strange desert species in existence, was burned yesterday, presumably by vandals. The tree was 80 feet high and its age was estimated at 1000 years.

The tree stood in the National Roosevelt Monument Park near Lancaster, Cal. The Joshua tree is found only on the Pacific Coast. Scientists call it the oldest living thing of the desert and say it descended probably from the lily.

$555,673 SPENT FOR GRUNDY

Pennsylvania Primary Expenses Increased to $1,477,800.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 21.—An unofficial total of $1,477,800 in expenditures in the Pennsylvania primary election campaign was shown in the receipt yesterday of additional small expense accounts at the State Elections Bureau.

From the accounts on file at the bureau, the following totals are shown as spent on behalf of the principal candidates: Davis-Brown ticket, $559,027; Senator Joseph R. Grundy, $555,673; Bohlen-Phillips-Dorrance wet ticket, $269,719; Gifford Pinchot, $149,182.

300 Columns of Paid Advertising in the Post-Dispatch

Only 252 Columns in all three other newspapers COMBINED.

The Post-Dispatch alone carried 48 columns more than The Globe-Democrat, The Star and Times ADDED TOGETHER.

IN ST. LOUIS CONCENTRATION IN THE POST-DISPATCH PAYS THE ADVERTISER

MANIAC HURLS 4 CHILDREN WIFE AND SELF FROM A CLIFF

R. C. Spang, After Dashing His Family to Death in New Haven, Conn., Park, Also Leaps 300 Feet From West Rock.

BOY WITNESS CALLED POLICE

Slayer Was a World War Veteran, 36 Years Old, and Was Released Only Yesterday From Soldiers' Hospital in New York.

By the Associated Press.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 21.—Ray C. Spang of Ansonia, mentally unbalanced, today threw his wife and their four children to their death from West Rock, a high cliff in this city's park system, and later jumped to death.

Three bodies were recovered from the base of the cliff early this afternoon. Searching parties found all of the bodies later and preparations were made to remove the last of them from the rocks.

An eye-witness of the tragedy was found in Maury Bogdanoff, who was playing baseball with other boys on the diamond in the little park. He said he was looking up at a man who was standing on the edge of the cliff, when he saw the man drop a child over the edge.

Witness Calls Police.
He said he was frightened and ran to a telephone and called the Grace Hospital. The hospital had an ambulance on the way to the rock before the police had started.

Martin and James Carey, brothers of Mrs. Spang, said that Spang was released from a soldiers' hospital in New York yesterday. Mrs. Spang and the children were so happy upon the return of husband and father that it was proposed they all go on a picnic today. The brothers assumed that Spang brought the family here in his automobile.

The automobile was found parked on the top of the rock. In it were Spang's coat, Mrs. Spang's pocketbook and other personal effects.

The tragedy on the edge of the cliff was reconstructed by the police. Spang threw one daughter over the cliff, Mrs. Spang struggled with him and he pushed her away. Then he picked up the other children, one by one, and dropped them over. Each child tried to save the other which explained why none ran away.

Spang, who was 36 years old, was a World War veteran. He had been employed by a manufacturing concern in Seymour, the adjoining town to Ansonia.

West Rock is one of the remarkable places in the city's park system. On its top, but removed 200 feet from the edge is Judge's Cave which once sheltered against the King's soldiers two of the judges, who condemned Charles I. of England to death.

The rock is one of five, of volcanic origin, which rise out of the sandy plain on which New Haven is situated.

Cliff 300 Feet High.
West Rock has a bold face of 300 feet, almost perpendicular, with seams across it which have created jagged ledges. This face is toward the Whalley avenue side, a main thoroughfare. At this base is a small park and a brook. Immense quantities of rock break away from the cliff face and form a drift at the base. It was on this face that today's tragedy occurred.

The other sides of the rock slope away into the Bethany and Woodbridge hills, all heavily wooded. On the other side of the city is East Rock, of somewhat similar description but with a face 50 feet higher.

Both rocks used to be favorite places for Yale students to emulate Alpine mountain climbers, until faculty orders put them out of bounds. The last student killed by a fall off the face of West Rock was a grandson of the late Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman, many years ago.

Maniac, Who Says He Has Killed Two, Wrote Mission Is Accomplished.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The letter writing maniac who has assumed blame for two recent killings and who had threatened 13 more, wrote what he said was his last letter today, asserting that his mission was accomplished and expressing his hope that the world would be a better place for his actions.

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

Historic Old Courthouse and Towering New One; Chief Dedication Speaker

By a Post-Dispatch Staff Photographer.

GRAFT EVIDENCE OF MOUNDS CLUB MAN ADMISSIBLE

Federal Judge FitzHenry to Allow Introduction of Murdock's Income Tax Statement.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 21.—Testimony given by Harry Murdock, operator of the Mounds Club in Madison County, at a preliminary hearing on an alleged income tax violation concerning the payment of $24,000 in 1927-28 in connection with the operation of 125 slot machines in Madison County, is admissible at his trial, Federal Judge Louis FitzHenry ruled yesterday at Bloomington.

Judge FitzHenry denied a motion of Harold J. Bandy of Granite City, attorney for Murdock, asking that testimony given by Murdock at a preliminary hearing at Edwardsville last January be ruled out on the ground that its admission would be a violation of the constitutional rights of the defendant.

Following announcement of Judge FitzHenry's ruling, Judge George T. Page of Chicago, sitting here, said that Murdock would be required to go to trial on a charge of refusing to give complete information to examiners for the Internal Revenue Department, and that the evidence obtained at the preliminary hearing may be brought out at the trial.

Murdock, in a plea before Judge FitzHenry, said he sought to be excused from naming the recipients of $24,000 listed in his 1927-28 income tax return under "salaries" on the ground that he might incriminate himself. His attorney argued that the use of the record against Murdock would be in the nature of forcing him to give evidence against himself.

Murdock paid a tax on an income of $40,000 in 1927, and on $60,000 in 1928, and sought to have the $24,000 in "salaries" deducted.

At the hearing at Edwardsville before Internal Revenue Examiner John R. Kirk of Springfield, he declined to name the recipients of the "salaries." The Government is seeking to trace the payments to determine if the persons receiving them made income tax returns on corresponding amounts.

At the preliminary hearing Murdock admitted operating slot machines in Madison County, and said he had spent considerable money in "promotion of good will."

In response to questions concerning towns in Madison County where slot machines were operated during the period covered by the income tax returns, and the names of recipients of money for which he sought deductions, Murdock declined to answer on grounds of possible incrimination.

Murdock is at liberty under $5000 bond. His next move in the effort to bar the preliminary hearing evidence from his trial will be an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals.

The penalty for conviction of the offense with which Murdock is charged is a prison term of not more than one year, a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

Slayer of Son-in-Law Convicted.
ROCKFORD, Ill., June 21.—John Pokosa, who slew his son-in-law because the latter had married his daughter over his protest, was convicted of murder yesterday.

ORIGINAL OWNER OF PISTOL TRACED IN LINGLE KILLING

Weapon Was Bought by Frank Foster Who Recently Joined Capone Gang, Records Show.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 21.—The revolver used to kill Alfred J. Lingle, Chicago Tribune reporter, today became an important clue in the hunt for his slayer, Frank Foster, a gangster, was the original owner of the pistol, police said today.

Foster has disappeared. Efforts had been made to file off the serial number on the weapon. But the file failed. Acid, microscopes and police patience finally disclosed the number.

The weapon, police have established, was originally in the sporting goods store of Peter von Frantzius, the same von Frantzius who has been involved in the investigation of other gang killings, particularly the St. Valentine's day killings of last year. Von Frantzius records show the weapon was sold to Foster several months ago.

Apparently Sold Revolver.
But Foster, the police think, disposed of the revolver prior to the Lingle murder, June 9. Foster, they said, was formerly a leader in the North Side gang under the joint leadership of George (Bugs) Moran and the Alieles. But Foster deserted the Moran-Alieles gang and joined the Capone gang.

Police think Foster learned that it was his weapon that killed Lingle and that he disappeared, even though he had no part in the killing.

Discovery that Foster originally owned the revolver led to a new police theory: That the killer, or killers, planned not only to kill Lingle, but to involve Foster as well.

Substantiating this, police said, are the stories of witnesses that the slayer "instead of flinging the pistol aside, placed it deliberately on the concrete floor of the Illinois Central subway in which Lingle was killed."

The Moran-Alieles connection is the original police theory. It is recalled that when the Police Commissioner, William Russell, and Chief of Detectives, John Stege, reached the scene of the murder, Stege turned to Russell and said:

"Shall I make that spot?"

Russell replied: "Give them about 25 minutes to get back there, then make it."

Flat Raided by Police.
Twenty-five minutes later police raided a flat on Grand avenue, known as headquarters for the Moran-Alieles gang. Three men, including Dominic Alieles, were arrested, and a machine gun and other weapons were found. The men later were taken to the Alieles-Moran gang, seeking revenge against Foster for his desertion to their gang foe, "Scarface" Capone, may have left his pistol by Lingle's body.

Privileges for American Tourists.
LISBON, June 21.—All frontier authorities have been advised to show the utmost courtesy to American tourists this season. Their baggage will not be submitted to the usual customs examination.

LETTER FROM HOOVER READ AT DEDICATION OF THE CIVIL COURTS

THE following letter from President Hoover to Circuit Judge Rutledge was read by Mayor Miller at the opening ceremonies at the new Civil Courts building this afternoon: "My Dear Judge Rutledge: Please express to the Judges and members of the bar present at the ceremonies of the opening of the new Civil Courts Building in St. Louis, my cordial greetings and my congratulations upon entering these handsome quarters, which will so greatly enhance the dignity of the surroundings in which justice will be administered. Yours faithfully, HERBERT HOOVER."

PIERCE BUTLER, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, photographed in St. Louis by a Post-Dispatch staff photographer.

SHOT WHEN WEAPON IN TRUNK IS DISCHARGED AT STATION

Emil Hagen Wounded Above Heart While Taking Baggage From Rock Island Car.

Emil Hagen, a baggage handler at Union Station, was seriously wounded at 7:45 o'clock this morning, when a firearm, in a trunk he was handling, was discharged, the bullet striking him in the left chest, above the heart.

Hagen, who lives at 3338 South Compton avenue, was engaged, at the time of the accident, in moving baggage from a car that had arrived with a Rock Island train from the West a few minutes before, to a loading truck. As he lifted a black steamer trunk, the weapon was discharged.

Hagen was taken to St. Mary's Infirmary; physicians expect him to recover.

LEADERS EXPECT ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS NEXT WEEK

Senate Agrees to Vote on Veterans' Relief Measure Monday.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Agreement has been reached in the Senate for a final vote Monday on the veterans' relief measure, and leaders are confident of an adjournment of this session by the end of next week.

Senator McNary, of Oregon, assistant Republican leader, obtained the agreement for a vote on the veterans' relief measure, Senator Reed (Rep.), Pennsylvania, who previously objected to a definite hour for a vote made no objection.

Chairman Jones of the Appropriations Committee notified the Senate he hoped to have the second deficiency appropriations bill before the Senate in time for action Tuesday.

$6000 DESK GIFT TO HOOVER

WASHINGTON, June 21.—President Hoover found a surprise awaiting him from Mrs. Hoover when he entered his office this morning.

After he left his office last night his old desk was removed and a beautiful maple antique desk, said to have cost $6000, took its place. Velvet brocade chairs took the place of those that formerly had stood there and a new rug was placed on the floor. Mrs. Hoover had chosen them as a present.

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

CIVIL COURTS DEDICATED, OLD BUILDING ABANDONED

After Valedictory Exercises at Historic Structure on Broadway, $4,500,000 Temple of Justice Is Ceremoniously Opened.

BENCH AND BAR FORM PROCESSION

Associate Justice Pierce Butler of United States Supreme Court Is the Principal Speaker—Mayor Miller Presides.

Bench and bar abandoned the historic old courthouse on Broadway and opened the new $4,500,000 Civil Courts Building on Twelfth boulevard today in an elaborate ceremony which included farewell exercises at the old building, a parade and a dedication program at the new building.

Several hundred persons, including city, State and Government officials, lawyers and court employees, participated in the exercises which began at 11 a. m., when the Circuit Judges gathered for their last general term meeting in the rotunda of the old courthouse.

Procession to New Building.
After a solemn leave-taking, participants in the ceremony marched west in Chestnut street to the new building where the concluding portion of the program was held on a speakers' platform erected at the east door.

At the old courthouse, Judge O'Neill Ryan delivered a valedictory for the bench and Isaac H. Linsberger for the bar, with Judge Charles W. Rutledge presiding.

At the new building, Mayor Miller presided and Associate Justice Pierce Butler of the United States Supreme Court was principal speaker. The Rev. Dr. Ivan Lee Holt delivered the invocation; Gov. Caulfield spoke in his official capacity; Prof. Alexander S. Langsdorf of Washington University for the Bond Issue Supervisory Committee, and Edward J. McCullen as president of the St. Louis Bar Association.

Crowds at Ceremony.
Shortly after 10 o'clock the crowd began to gather at the old Courthouse, where cards were required for admittance. The stone-floored rotunda had been roped off in sections with chairs for more prominent officials and a flag-draped platform with 14 mahogany chairs for the Circuit Judges.

Former Judges and women relatives of Judges and officials found places in the second-floor balcony, while other guests of court officials were placed in the third-floor balcony. The rotunda floor, and adjoining corridors were crowded with standing spectators, while most of the members of the bar and deputy clerks and deputy sheriffs assembled outside because of the limited space.

Amplifiers wired to the platform carried the voices of the speakers to the various corridors and the balconies, while two amplifiers were set at open windows for the listeners outside. It was estimated that about 1000 men and women were gathered in and about the building.

Last Term Meeting.
Presiding Judge Rutledge called the term meeting, to order and after a brief speech introduced Judge Peary, who read the court's formal resolution of transfer to the new building. A vote was taken and the Judges voiced unanimous approval.

Judge Ryan delivered an impassioned address, closing with arms raised to the high roof of the courthouse, crying: "Farewell, farewell, farewell!" Linsberger followed in a voice so low that Judge Rutledge was compelled to rap for order to silence murmurs in the audience.

At noon, Grand Marshal Edward H. Lofthagen and his aids escorted the judges and formed a procession which passed through the east door, falling in behind the Police Department band for the parade to Twelfth boulevard.

Nothing was left behind except the remnants of the ceremony, a few dusty files, two Justices of the Peace courts which had moved in since the exodus of the past week and Ed Lampe, the blind cigar dealer, who plans to remain at the old stand for the time being.

Mounted police who led the procession stood at the old Courthouse at 12:15 o'clock and arrived at the east door of the new building.

Continued on Page 3, Column 5.

ST. LOUISAN'S YACHT HIT BY PLANE, 3 HURT

S. C. Davis' Boat Struck by Craft Taking Off at New London, Conn.

By the Associated Press.
NEW LONDON, Conn., June 21.—A coast guard seaplane, taking off for Gloucester, Mass., crashed into the motor yacht Whiz, owned by Samuel C. Davis, capitalist, of St. Louis.

The plane somersaulted, nosedived and turned bottom up. It struck the water. The occupants of the plane, two coast guard officers, escaped uninjured. They were picked up by a motor boat.

Three persons aboard the Whiz were injured. They were: Captain Best of the Whiz, Harold Cooper and Frederick Beal, sailors. Their injuries were said to be not serious. All three suffered lacerations caused by flying glass.

The Whiz is owned by Samuel C. Davis, 13 Westmoreland place. A wife received by Davis formed him that his son, Samuel C. Davis Jr., and two companions were aboard the Whiz at the time of the accident, but that none of the three was hurt, although the yacht would be out of commission for a week or more.

RADIO SPEECH FROM GERMANY
Foreign Minister in Deliver Address on World Peace Tonight.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, June 21.—Dr. Julius Curtius, Foreign Minister, tonight will deliver a radio address for the American people on German-American relations and world peace.

An attempt will be made to transmit the speech across the Atlantic on a 21.33 wave length through the station at Koenigs-waerthausen. Dr. Curtius will be introduced by Frederic C. Sackett, American Ambassador.

REICHSTAG BARS SHIRT SLEEVES
Chairman Orders Members to Wear Coats Despite Heat.

BERLIN, June 21.—A temperature of about 90 degrees in the shade does not deter members in appearing in coats. The Reichstag has decreed. Vice President Siegfried von Kardorff had been shocked because some of the members attended sessions in shirt sleeves.

As the House rules do not mention dress, Von Kardorff made a special request of all members not to lower the dignity of the House. The order also applies to the reporters' gallery.

BAR ASSOCIATION INDORSES 7 MEN FOR CIRCUIT BENCH

TO THE OLD BUILDING

Judge Presides at Ceremony Abandoning Old Courthouse for the New.

"St. Louis has experienced many worthy civic efforts, but in none in her history has the people of St. Louis had more to do than with the Courthouse as they are about to enter; and it should be said that the people have acquired an affectionate, live interest and pride in that building, and have high hopes for its greater usefulness in the future administration of justice. The people have given it that purpose, and we, who have the responsibility, have the responsibility."

"Highest Object of Society."

"Justice to all is the highest, the noblest, the finest, the noblest object of organized society. The building we are to enter has the appearance of a temple, suggests dignity and purity, rises to towering heights, beautiful, graceful, majestic—symbolizing the highest object of society."

justice administered on the highest most dignified and purest plane inspiring us to the highest ideal to the finer things, in the administration of justice, in the practice of the law. Let us take a lesson from this symbol, and ever remember its meaning, and ever strive to maintain the ideals it inspires and teaches.

"We leave here with mingled feelings of gladness and sadness gladness because of comforts and bright anticipations and high hope for the future; sadness, because of leaving haunts that have become dear from associations. We leave with respect and reverence for what this building has been to us and what it will in the future be as a monument to the old glory of St. Louis. Here great judicial careers have begun and ended; many fine legal careers have here begun and ended. Our careers have begun here to end elsewhere. This struggle has witnessed our legal victories and defeats, many of our joys and sorrows, many of our hopes realized, and some blighted. History has here been made that will live through the centuries, with a touch of romance here and there that has pleased and entertained, and taught us, and our children, much of

Speedier, More Certain Justice.

of St. Louis; higher and nobler ideals in the practice of the law and in the meting out of justice; speedier and more certain justice; and be it ever remembered, that justice and truth ply the shafts of time unchanged."

40 Dry Law Arrests in Sedalia
By the Associated Press.
SEDALIA, Mo., June 21.—The total arrests in dry raids by several agents, which started less than an hour after midnight yesterday. The number of arrests was increased to 40 last night when two persons were arrested. All but 16 of the 40 made bond. The raids were conducted by 13 Federal agents under the direction of W. Harold Lane, Deputy Prohibition Administrator for the Western District of Missouri.

occasion I have dwelt too long and too lovingly upon the past. I beg of you to forgive one who is old and cannot forget. I am not despondent, but regretful. I do not doubt that under your guidance the course of empire, which tends westward, may terminate in an elysium of liberty, equality and fraternity under a restored constitution and bill of rights which "Our ceremony is finished. The past is behind us. Let us on to that future which beckons us to noble future, I trust, which shall accomplish for this mighty nation the aspiration of its founders under the guidance of good men and quent, who are familiar with laws and faithful to its traditions for without their help constitutions are but words and liberties cannot survive."

is getting most nditure. That's and finer rooms are a "bargain" living quarters.

LT HOTEL
ing Room in Connection
FOrest 4100

MOTHER OF FIVE ARRESTED
Whisky and Home Brew For Her Confectionery Store
Mrs. Blanche Jenner, a 38 old mother of five boys, the 12 was arrested yesterday. Deputy Sheriffs raided her c of the Roosevelt are a "bargain" in luxurious living quarters.

AIR MAIL PILOT, MISSING IN ANDES FOR WEEK, FOUND

Plane Down in Storm, He Had Fallen From Preci-

Shepherd Girl.

By the Associated Press.

MEDOZA, Argentina, June 21.—Succored by a shepherdess, Henri Guillaume, French air mail aviator, endured the hardships of a plane crash, and fall down a precipice, an Andean blizzard, lack of food and days without sleep, and lived to tell the tale.

An airplane brought him here last night from a mountain village, Fareddas, where he was found yesterday by a provincial police official. He had been missing for a week, and a search for him would have been abandoned today in the belief that he and plane had been buried in the snows which have fallen in the Andes for days.

A medical examination showed that the flyer was suffering from various injuries, principally severe bruises, incurred when he lost his footing on a glacier and tumbled 400 feet down a precipice.

Landing Forced by Snow.

Guillamset set out a week ago yesterday from Santiago de Chile with mail and cargo for Mendoza, an Argentine border city. The trip under any circumstances is difficult and dangerous, due to the high peaks of the Andes which

The plane upset and was destroyed, but Guillaumet crawled out of the wreckage unhurt. The blizzard still raged, so he spent the night beneath the wings of his plane, remaining awake so as not to freeze to death. Saturday the weather cleared and he saw an airplane fly high over him. He signaled, but apparently his motions were not perceived.

Sunday he started to march through the mountains toward Mendoza, hardly hoping he would ever reach there alive. It was then he slipped on the ice and fell down a precipice, losing what provisions he had with him and receiving injuries that made every minute one of suffering.

Shepherd Girl Helps Him.

Hungry and afraid to sleep, he marched Tuesday and Wednesday over mountain and through snow-filled valleys, until Thursday he stumbled into, the presence of a shepherdess watching her flock on the hillside not many miles from Pareditas. She dressed his wounds, gave him food and found him a place to sleep.

Her ministrations gave Guillaume strength to go further. She directed him toward Pareditas where he finally was found, escorted by a provincial policeman, who notified authorities and brought a plane there to carry him back to Mendoza.

$500 FIRE IN APARTMENT

Fire caused $500 damage at the Standard Auto Parts Co. offices,

3200 Locust boulevard, last night.
The origin of the fire was not learned.

J. WILLIAM FRANK FUNERAL Services at 10 A. M. Tomorrow for Neckwear Dealer.

The funeral of J. William Frank, 7612 Kingsbury boulevard, who died yesterday following a year's illness, will held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the family residence. Burial will be at Mount Sinal Cemetery.

Mr. Frank, who was 39 years old, was vice president and treasurer of the Frank & Meyer Neckwear Co. He is survived by his widow, Lillie Oppenheimer Frank; two daughters, Eloise and Dorothy; a brother, Simon M. Frank, and a sister, Mrs. Jerome Cook.

$10 to $50 3 to 5 Units of Sales, According to Size.
10 Years With Packard People
WM. A. FLYNN
4500 Evans Av. DElmar 1680
Open Sunday and Evenings

... with outside salesmen cover a nationally known filling stations, garages and on the market for the past large increases each year.
ducts handled and territory patch.

BYRD WELCOMED IN RICHMOND BY CHEERING CROWDS

Crowd Booms, Flags Are Open as Procession Opens Celebration in Native State of Virginia.

HOOVER PRESENTS HIM WITH MEDAL

Explorer Receives Special Award of National Geographic Society, the Second for Polar Work.

By the Associated Press. RICHMOND, Va., June 21.—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd arrived in Richmond at 2:55 p. m. for his native State's homecoming celebration.

Byrd, on the private car of Mrs. Hutton, president of the Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railway, was met by his mother, Mrs. Eleanor Bolling Byrd, his wife, Mrs. Marie Ames Byrd, Mrs. Harry Flood Byrd, and his two brothers, former Gov. Harry Flood Byrd, and Thomas B. Byrd.

The procession, forming at the station took Byrd through streets jammed with thousands of cheering persons. Flags were waved and guns boomed.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd turned toward home today to greet old friends and neighbors eager to add their own acclaim to that of New York and Washington.

Byrd was the possessor of the second medal presented to him by a President of the United States for his achievements in exploring the polar regions by airplane.

The decoration, a special medal of the National Geographic Society, was conferred on him last night by President Hoover in company with his South Pole flight.

The presentation took place on the same stage on which he received from President Coolidge a medal in honor of his flight over the North Pole.

"For men of our race to master extraordinary difficulties, to carry through great adventure, to thrive with pride, with hope and with confidence," Mr. Hoover said.

Great explorers do not merely add to the sum of human knowledge; they also add immensely to the sum of human inspiration."

Byrd describes the flight. In reply, Byrd told of the flight in the pole and described the region in which he and his party dwelt while preparing for the flight. His full report is to be published in the fall.

It was satisfying to the mind. Byrd said that the expedition accomplished its objectives and carried the American flag 10,000 miles farther south than it ever had before.

"But," he added, "of deeper meaning is the fact that every man who started out with me has returned that we left not a single man on the ice—that everyone is here tonight."

"Such a thing satisfies the heart. At the conclusion of his address, motion pictures taken by the expedition were shown for the first time.

Text of Hoover's Address. The text of President Hoover's address follows:

"I am glad to welcome Admiral Byrd back to Washington. I speak not merely for myself but for the nation as a whole and for every individual citizen. His contribution to the knowledge of our country and his country takes a just pride in them and in him.

More than that, his daring and his courage have thrilled each one of us individually because he has proved anew the wisdom, power and glory of qualities which we believe are latent in our people. For men of our race to master extraordinary difficulties, to carry through great adventure, to thrive with pride, with hope and with confidence, I sometimes think that this is the greatest value of modern explorers.

"I do not minimize the scientific value of such expeditions, but the human values are so immediate and so universal in their appeal that it may well be that they transcend the scientific service. Every hidden spot of the earth's surface remains a challenge to man's will and ingenuity until it has been conquered. Every conquest of such a difficult goal adds permanently to mankind's sense of power and security. Great explorers, therefore, do not merely add to the sum of human knowledge, but also they add immensely to the sum of human inspiration."

Enriching of Knowledge. Knowledge, too, has been enriched by Admiral Byrd's expedition. New coasts of the Antarctic continent have been mapped and new regions have been explored. Geological data have been increased which contribute to our knowledge of the history of the earth. New knowledge of magnetic forces and of weather changes has been gained. The store of the world's knowledge may not be increased in money, for money we can, a steel that presumably knows no wear and tear, and our old friend Art fundamentally unchanged, as he has always been in the face of aesthetic inquiry, knowable more through association and sensitized feeling than rational endeavor. For our fundamental notions are unchanged by this treatise, despite the fact that it gives us a new aesthetic language and new terms for its discriminations. It remains a splendid intellectual structure and, at least philosophically, seems impervious to assault. Perhaps the more naive of us will be forgiven for failing to see that it establishes any concrete new artistic criteria.—Reed Hynds.

DROLL PETER, by Felix Timmermans. (Coward-McCann.) Of special interest to artists, but a rattling good story for any reader, is this resurrection in fiction of the Flemish artist, Peter Bruegel, who flourished in sixteenth century Flanders during the troubled period when the country was torn between the contending forces of Catholic Spain and the adherents of the Reformation. During his struggle thousands of his fellow countrymen perished, including Peter's birthplace, were ravaged, and even a great artist was in danger of being imprisoned and burned as a heretic.

Peter, however, had too much sense, a mind too well balanced, to desert his art at the beck of fanaticism. And so he lived to a good old age, after a multitude of adventures that are told with gusto by this novelist. Extreme poverty in his early youth gave Peter his inspiration for his remarkable pictures of the poor and the thin. He was always failing in love, though his art sometimes triumphed over his heart. He journeyed to Italy to get the spirit of the Renaissance, but what he saw of the then new style and the great masters did not induce him to desert his own beloved Gothic school, his love of country, peasant, natural life as he knew it in his cool and rather foggy homeland, in tavern, village and church.

The customs and manners of the time are pictured in this book with so rich a hue that one sees them as a proper background for the artist's character. It was a time of alternate starvation and glut, both in food and drink. Beer flows through it all. Miserly gives way to luxury. And the shadow of religious warfare too frequently darkens the picture. With all this we have a fine story of the growth of Peter as a man whom Art made great, and of the man who in turn gave her of his best.

Of Making Many Books JOHN G. NEIHARDT

A PRIMER OF ESTHETICS. By Paul Grudin. (Covici-Friede, New York, $3.)

THE title of this work is perhaps a little too modest. It is a primer in the sense that it lays down fundamentals, but in no other sense. The layman, unused to either philosophical jargons or reasoning, will find it rather "rough sledding." And it would be wise, perhaps, to recall Anatole France's caution: "In esthetics one can argue more and better than in any other subject. It is there that one must be cautious. . . . In this field you must not even trust the perfect and sublime, but of such a delicacy as a mechanism that it cannot work except in the void, because a grain of sand in its wheel-work is enough to make it go wrong."

This particular type of mind which Mr. Grudin has the misfortune to set out to prove is that of esthetics which is a field of authentic and verifiable knowledge, as distinct from the concept of a dualism between the aesthetic and scientific orders in knowledge. Bertrand Russell's atomism, he arrives at the conclusion that a work of art is an object which has a meaning, that its nature is symbolic. It is thus a structure of symbols which may be approached in physics, as a structure of language. Each science has its particular language or verbal symbolism which must be translated into a general language or synthesis before it can be a philosophy. Thus we would describe a work of art as a structure of atoms; in psychology, as a unit stimulus with the visual character of a colored disc; philosophically we would have to co-ordinate these various meanings. By neglecting this method writers like Paul Valery and Eliot have employed the habits, idiosyncrasies and criteria of literature as aesthetic criteria. Their writings have a meaning as symbols of their particular language, "but these are not the order of meaning which requires interpretation and cannot itself say anything in esthetics." This is a very real criticism and one that deserves recognition.

Considerations of esthetics as a particular symbolic domain lead naturally to an analysis of the nature of symbolism, the meaning of knowledge, the freeing of meaning from their roles as essential functions of the ego, finding "private" terms or inexpressibles are reducible to publicity and expression, etc. The symbolic character of logic is symbolic relation. Finally, arrive at esthetic value as "a fixed context estheticization, whether the context be verbal, visual, auditory or some other kind."

It is rather a good to return home after wandering through this forest of philosophical bugbears (even though we have been riding Rea-make and spend, but knowledge remains always with the race. "All these achievements are the capstone of a career which projects before Americans have watched with interest and pride. Admiral Byrd has been first to conquer the difficulties of reaching the Poles by heavier-than-air flying. He has flown the Atlantic Ocean, success has followed upon success in his life, and this is the greatest of all.

"As with all consistently successful issues, his accomplishments have been built upon painstaking preparation, foreknowledge of the special problems to be solved, thoughtful plans to meet them and infinite patience in preparation and in the execution. He has demonstrated the traits of a born commander—boldness at the right time, comradeship, those heroic qualities that endear the captain to his men. And he is beloved by the American people."

Presenting of Medal. Byrd, upon your success, upon your return to your country and home and friends, upon your services and the lift you have given to the spirit of your countrymen, I am happy to present to you this special gold medal of the National Geographic Society, awarded to you for the first attainment of the geographical South Pole by air. . . . and your distinguished contributions to world knowledge of Antarctica. And I take great pleasure in again introducing you formally to this audience, seen and unseen, to whom you need no introduction, and to whose hands I now commit the rendering of those further honors which you so highly deserve."

The members of Byrd's command left Washington for New York last midnight.

FATHER ROGERS, EX-HEAD OF ST. LOUIS U., RETIRES

Jesuit Goes to New Novitate at Milford, Conn., After 54 Years.

The Rev. William Banks Rogers, S. J., president of St. Louis University from 1900 to 1928, left yesterday to enter the new Jesuit novitate at Milford, Conn., making his retirement from active duties after 54 years of service in the order.

Father Rogers, who is 73 years old, was instrumental in establishing the School of Medicine of St. Louis University and prior to that to the university was president of Marquette College, Milwaukee, for two years. He was a delegate to Rome on an official mission in 1906. His retirement from the presidency of St. Louis University was prompted by failing health. A rule was established subsequently limiting the tenure of office to not more than two three-year terms.

DEATH OF LOUIS J. GARESCHE

Relatives in St. Louis have been informed of the death of Louis J. Garesche, former St. Louisian, in Washington. He died last Saturday after a year's illness. Funeral services were held Wednesday. He was 74 years old and had lived in Washington for 40 years.

Mr. Garesche was born in St. Louis, the son of Lieutenant Colonel Julius P. Garesche. He attended St. Louis University and later the United States Military Academy at West Point. About 1899 he was employed in the Government service and moved to Washington. He is survived by his widow, St. Louis relatives include Julius M. and Miss Louise Garesche, Louis J. Hornsby, John H. Farish and Paul Bakewell Jr., all of whom are first cousins.

TINKHAM ACCEPTS CANNON DARE AND REPEATS CHARGES

Sheds Congressional Immunity and Reiterates Bishop Violated Corrupt Practices Act.

METHODIST PRELATE RESERVES COMMENT

He Suggests He Would Sue for Libel—Wet Assault—From Massachusetts Is Millionaire.

By PAUL Y. ANDERSON, A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Congressman George Holden Tinkham has accepted in part Bishop James Cannon's dare to waive his congressional immunity by repeating outside of Congress the charges that Tinkham made against Cannon on the floor of the House Tuesday.

The wet Massachusetts Congressman, yesterday handed to newspaper correspondents, in accordance with the terms of Cannon's challenge, a signed statement in which he repeated his charge that Cannon had been guilty of "a shameful violation of the corrupt practices act in failing to report anti-Smith campaign funds received by him in 1928. Cannon's dare had included a thinly veiled threat to bring suit against Tinkham if he repeated his accusations off the floor of the House.

Circumstances of the Dare. In the course of his prepared speech in the House Tuesday, Tinkham asserted that Cannon had violated a criminal statute when he failed to report, within the period provided by law, the receipt of $65,300 from E. C. Jameson, New York financier. Referring to the fact that Cannon eventually accounted for only $17,000 of the fund, and refused to tell the Senate Lobby Committee what he did with the remaining $48,300, Tinkham added that until Cannon reported, under oath, his disposition of the $48,300 he would "stand ready to insist in the Senate and House should investigate Cannon's ' nefarious activities' in 1928."

Congressman Shaffer (Rep.), a dry of Virginia, immediately referred to the Bishop's defense. Referring to the Tinkham and Shaffer charges, the Virginia Congressman said Cannon, whom he described as "a Virginia citizen, "had been ambushed on the floor of the House, stabbed in the back."

Referring to the fact that Cannon had accepted the Bishop's challenge, Shaffer said, "The gentleman from Massachusetts charged Bishop Cannon with violating the law and with embezzlement. Until he goes out in the open and repeats these charges he will be condemned in the eyes of all fair-minded Americans as a coward and a slanderer. The gentleman from Massachusetts by his remarks will decide himself. It is all done in an attempt to perjure the Bishop, to cripple the great Southern Methodist Church and to destroy prohibition."

Doesn't Intend to Apologize. Shaffer said today that when he made his remarks about Tinkham he did not know of Tinkham's statement. He explained that his criticism of Tinkham as "a coward and a slanderer," was based on the supposition that the Massachusetts Congressman had not repeated his charges off the floor. In reply to a question, however, Shaffer said he did not intend to make any public apology to Tinkham.

The use of word "coward" in connection with Tinkham's name has been the cause of unusual amusement here. He is one of the most celebrated big game hunters in the United States and his Washington apartment is littered with the skins of lions and tigers killed by him.

Memorial Held for Pastors

Concluding Session of Lutheran Convention at Concordia Seminary.

A memorial service for pastors, teachers and lay workers of the Lutheran district of the Lutheran Church, who died during the last year, was held yesterday at Concordia Seminary at the concluding session of the church's annual district convention.

Prof. J. H. C. Fritz, dean of Concordia, said that the enrollment at the seminary next year will be larger than ever before, about 145 theological students being expected next year's entrance class. It was decided that the next western district convention be held at Concordia during June.

AMERICAN WEDS IN PARIS

Evelyn MacDonald of Chattanooga, Tenn., Married to Briton.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, June 21.—Miss Evelyn MacDonald, daughter of Mrs. Horace MacDonald of Chattanooga, Tenn., was married here today to Norman G. Tyson of London in the British Embassy Church. The bridegroom is the son of H. G. Tyson, London financier.

CHURCH NOTICES

11 A. M.—"The Hearing Ear." 8 P. M.—"The Call of the Wild."

THE SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Westminster Place and Taylor St. DR. MacVicar, Pastor.

CHURCH NOTICES

THE CHURCHES NAMED BELOW ARE ALL BRANCHES OF THE SOUTHER METHODIST CHURCH OF CHRIST.

FIRST CHURCH—Kingshighway and Westminster; 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday, 9 a. m. to 12 p. m.; Sunday, 10:30 a. m. to 12 p. m. except holidays.

SECOND CHURCH—1224 Washington Blvd.; 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday, 9 a. m. to 12 p. m.; Sunday, 10:30 a. m. to 12 p. m. except holidays.

THIRD CHURCH—3224 Russell Blvd.; 10:45 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday, 9 a. m. to 12 p. m. except holidays.

FOURTH CHURCH—5509 Pine Blvd.; 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. morning service; 10:45 a. m. to 12 p. m. Sunday, 9 a. m. to 12 p. m. except holidays.

FIFTH CHURCH—Arkansas and Potomac; 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday, 9 a. m. to 12 p. m. except holidays.

SIXTH CHURCH—3720 Natural Bridge; 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday, 9 a. m. to 12 p. m. except holidays.

SEVENTH CHURCH—Church office; 15 to 17 to 19 to 21 to 23 to 25 to 27 to 29 to 31 to 33 to 35 to 37 to 39 to 41 to 43 to 45 to 47 to 49 to 51 to 53 to 55 to 57 to 59 to 61 to 63 to 65 to 67 to 69 to 71 to 73 to 75 to 77 to 79 to 81 to 83 to 85 to 87 to 89 to 91 to 93 to 95 to 97 to 99 to 101 to 103 to 105 to 107 to 109 to 111 to 113 to 115 to 117 to 119 to 121 to 123 to 125 to 127 to 129 to 131 to 133 to 135 to 137 to 139 to 141 to 143 to 145 to 147 to 149 to 151 to 153 to 155 to 157 to 159 to 161 to 163 to 165 to 167 to 169 to 171 to 173 to 175 to 177 to 179 to 181 to 183 to 185 to 187 to 189 to 191 to 193 to 195 to 197 to 199 to 201 to 203 to 205 to 207 to 209 to 211 to 213 to 215 to 217 to 219 to 221 to 223 to 225 to 227 to 229 to 231 to 233 to 235 to 237 to 239 to 241 to 243 to 245 to 247 to 249 to 251 to 253 to 255 to 257 to 259 to 261 to 263 to 265 to 267 to 269 to 271 to 273 to 275 to 277 to 279 to 281 to 283 to 285 to 287 to 289 to 291 to 293 to 295 to 297 to 299 to 301 to 303 to 305 to 307 to 309 to 311 to 313 to 315 to 317 to 319 to 321 to 323 to 325 to 327 to 329 to 331 to 333 to 335 to 337 to 339 to 341 to 343 to 345 to 347 to 349 to 351 to 353 to 355 to 357 to 359 to 361 to 363 to 365 to 367 to 369 to 371 to 373 to 375 to 377 to 379 to 381 to 383 to 385 to 387 to 389 to 391 to 393 to 395 to 397 to 399 to 401 to 403 to 405 to 407 to 409 to 411 to 413 to 415 to 417 to 419 to 421 to 423 to 425 to 427 to 429 to 431 to 433 to 435 to 437 to 439 to 441 to 443 to 445 to 447 to 449 to 451 to 453 to 455 to 457 to 459 to 461 to 463 to 465 to 467 to 469 to 471 to 473 to 475 to 477 to 479 to 481 to 483 to 485 to 487 to 489 to 491 to 493 to 495 to 497 to 499 to 501 to 503 to 505 to 507 to 509 to 511 to 513 to 515 to 517 to 519 to 521 to 523 to 525 to 527 to 529 to 531 to 533 to 535 to 537 to 539 to 541 to 543 to 545 to 547 to 549 to 551 to 553 to 555 to 557 to 559 to 561 to 563 to 565 to 567 to 569 to 571 to 573 to 575 to 577 to 579 to 581 to 583 to 585 to 587 to 589 to 591 to 593 to 595 to 597 to 599 to 601 to 603 to 605 to 607 to 609 to 611 to 613 to 615 to 617 to 619 to 621 to 623 to 625 to 627 to 629 to 631 to 633 to 635 to 637 to 639 to 641 to 643 to 645 to 647 to 649 to 651 to 653 to 655 to 657 to 659 to 661 to 663 to 665 to 667 to 669 to 671 to 673 to 675 to 677 to 679 to 681 to 683 to 685 to 687 to 689 to 691 to 693 to 695 to 697 to 699 to 701 to 703 to 705 to 707 to 709 to 711 to 713 to 715 to 717 to 719 to 721 to 723 to 725 to 727 to 729 to 731 to 733 to 735 to 737 to 739 to 741 to 743 to 745 to 747 to 749 to 751 to 753 to 755 to 757 to 759 to 761 to 763 to 765 to 767 to 769 to 771 to 773 to 775 to 777 to 779 to 781 to 783 to 785 to 787 to 789 to 791 to 793 to 795 to 797 to 799 to 801 to 803 to 805 to 807 to 809 to 811 to 813 to 815 to 817 to 819 to 821 to 823 to 825 to 827 to 829 to 831 to 833 to 835 to 837 to 839 to 841 to 843 to 845 to 847 to 849 to 851 to 853 to 855 to 857 to 859 to 861 to 863 to 865 to 867 to 869 to 871 to 873 to 875 to 877 to 879 to 881 to 883 to 885 to 887 to 889 to 891 to 893 to 895 to 897 to 899 to 901 to 903 to 905 to 907 to 909 to 911 to 913 to 915 to 917 to 919 to 921 to 923 to 925 to 927 to 929 to 931 to 933 to 935 to 937 to 939 to 941 to 943 to 945 to 947 to 949 to 951 to 953 to 955 to 957 to 959 to 961 to 963 to 965 to 967 to 969 to 971 to 973 to 975 to 977 to 979 to 981 to 983 to 985 to 987 to 989 to 991 to 993 to 995 to 997 to 999 to 1001 to 1003 to 1005 to 1007 to 1009 to 1011 to 1013 to 1015 to 1017 to 1019 to 1021 to 1023 to 1025 to 1027 to 1029 to 1031 to 1033 to 1035 to 1037 to 1039 to 1041 to 1043 to 1045 to 1047 to 1049 to 1051 to 1053 to 1055 to 1057 to 1059 to 1061 to 1063 to 1065 to 1067 to 1069 to 1071 to 1073 to 1075 to 1077 to 1079 to 1081 to 1083 to 1085 to 1087 to 1089 to 1091 to 1093 to 1095 to 1097 to 1099 to 1101 to 1103 to 1105 to 1107 to 1109 to 1111 to 1113 to 1115 to 1117 to 1119 to 1121 to 1123 to 1125 to 1127 to 1129 to 1131 to 1133 to 1135 to 1137 to 1139 to 1141 to 1143 to 1145 to 1147 to 1149 to 1151 to 1153 to 1155 to 1157 to 1159 to 1161 to 1163 to 1165 to 1167 to 1169 to 1171 to 1173 to 1175 to 1177 to 1179 to 1181 to 1183 to 1185 to 1187 to 1189 to 1191 to 1193 to 1195 to 1197 to 1199 to 1201 to 1203 to 1205 to 1207 to 1209 to 1211 to 1213 to 1215 to 1217 to 1219 to 1221 to 1223 to 1225 to 1227 to 1229 to 1231 to 1233 to 1235 to 1237 to 1239 to 1241 to 1243 to 1245 to 1247 to 1249 to 1251 to 1253 to 1255 to 1257 to 1259 to 1261 to 1263 to 1265 to 1267 to 1269 to 1271 to 1273 to 1275 to 1277 to 1279 to 1281 to 1283 to 1285 to 1287 to 1289 to 1291 to 1293 to 1295 to 1297 to 1299 to 1301 to 1303 to 1305 to 1307 to 1309 to 1311 to 1313 to 1315 to 1317 to 1319 to 1321 to 1323 to 1325 to 1327 to 1329 to 1331 to 1333 to 1335 to 1337 to 1339 to 1341 to 1343 to 1345 to 1347 to 1349 to 1351 to 1353 to 1355 to 1357 to 1359 to 1361 to 1363 to 1365 to 1367 to 1369 to 1371 to 1373 to 1375 to 1377 to 1379 to 1381 to 1383 to 1385 to 1387 to 1389 to 1391 to 1393 to 1395 to 1397 to 1399 to 1401 to 1403 to 1405 to 1407 to 1409 to 1411 to 1413 to 1415 to 1417 to 1419 to 1421 to 1423 to 1425 to 1427 to 1429 to 1431 to 1433 to 1435 to 1437 to 1439 to 1441 to 1443 to 1445 to 1447 to 1449 to 1451 to 1453 to 1455 to 1457 to 1459 to 1461 to 1463 to 1465 to 1467 to 1469 to 1471 to 1473 to 1475 to 1477 to 1479 to 1481 to 1483 to 1485 to 1487 to 1489 to 1491 to 1493 to 1495 to 1497 to 1499 to 1501 to 1503 to 1505 to 1507 to 1509 to 1511 to 1513 to 1515 to 1517 to 1519 to 1521 to 1523 to 1525 to 1527 to 1529 to 1531 to 1533 to 1535 to 1537 to 1539 to 1541 to 1543 to 1545 to 1547 to 1549 to 1551 to 1553 to 1555 to 1557 to 1559 to 1561 to 1563 to 1565 to 1567 to 1569 to 1571 to 1573 to 1575 to 1577 to 1579 to 1581 to 1583 to 1585 to 1587 to 1589 to 1591 to 1593 to 1595 to 1597 to 1599 to 1601 to 1603 to 1605 to 1607 to 1609 to 1611 to 1613 to 1615 to 1617 to 1619 to 1621 to 1623 to 1625 to 1627 to 1629 to 1631 to 1633 to 1635 to 1637 to 1639 to 1641 to 1643 to 1645 to 1647 to 1649 to 1651 to 1653 to 1655 to 1657 to 1659 to 1661 to 1663 to 1665 to 1667 to 1669 to 1671 to 1673 to 1675 to 1677 to 1679 to 1681 to 1683 to 1685 to 1687 to 1689 to 1691 to 1693 to 1695 to 1697 to 1699 to 1701 to 1703 to 1705 to 1707 to 1709 to 1711 to 1713 to 1715 to 1717 to 1719 to 1721 to 1723 to 1725 to 1727 to 1729 to 1731 to 1733 to 1735 to 1737 to 1739 to 1741 to 1743 to 1745 to 1747 to 1749 to 1751 to 1753 to 1755 to 1757 to 1759 to 1761 to 1763 to 1765 to 1767 to 1769 to 1771 to 1773 to 1775 to 1777 to 1779 to 1781 to 1783 to 1785 to 1787 to 1789 to 1791 to 1793 to 1795 to 1797 to 1799 to 1801 to 1803 to 1805 to 1807 to 1809 to 1811 to 1813 to 1815 to 1817 to 1819 to 1821 to 1823 to 1825 to 1827 to 1829 to 1831 to 1833 to 1835 to 1837 to 1839 to 1841 to 1843 to 1845 to 1847 to 1849 to 1851 to 1853 to 1855 to 1857 to 1859 to 1861 to 1863 to 1865 to 1867 to 1869 to 1871 to 1873 to 1875 to 1877 to 1879 to 1881 to 1883 to 1885 to 1887 to 1889 to 1891 to 1893 to 1895 to 1897 to 1899 to 1901 to 1903 to 1905 to 1907 to 1909 to 1911 to 1913 to 1915 to 1917 to 1919 to 1921 to 1923 to 1925 to 1927 to 1929 to 1931 to 1933 to 1935 to 1937 to 1939 to 1941 to 1943 to 1945 to 1947 to 1949 to 1951 to 1953 to 1955 to 1957 to 1959 to 1961 to 1963 to 1965 to 1967 to 1969 to 1971 to 1973 to 1975 to 1977 to 1979 to 1981 to 1983 to 1985 to 1987 to 1989 to 1991 to 1993 to 1995 to 1997 to 1999 to 2001 to 2003 to 2005 to 2007 to 2009 to 2011 to 2013 to 2015 to 2017 to 2019 to 2021 to 2023 to 2025 to 2027 to 2029 to 2031 to 2033 to 2035 to 2037 to 2039 to 2041 to 2043 to 2045 to 2047 to 2049 to 2051 to 2053 to 2055 to 2057 to 2059 to 2061 to 2063 to 2065 to 2067 to 2069 to 2071 to 2073 to 2075 to 2077 to 2079 to 2081 to 2083 to 2085 to 2087 to 2089 to 2091 to 2093 to 2095 to 2097 to 2099 to 2101 to 2103 to 2105 to 2107 to 2109 to 2111 to 2113 to 2115 to 2117 to 2119 to 2121 to 2123 to 2125 to 2127 to 2129 to 2131 to 2133 to 2135 to 2137 to 2139 to 2141 to 2143 to 2145 to 2147 to 2149 to 2151 to 2153 to 2155 to 2157 to 2159 to 2161 to 2163 to 2165 to 2167 to 2169 to 2171 to 2173 to

LOCAL STOCK PRICES SHOW MIXED CHANGES

Landis Machine Is Lower—Wagner Electric Closes Higher After Lower Sales—National Candy Is Unchanged.

ST. LOUIS STOCK EXCHANGE, June 21.—Wagner Electric, International Shoe and Landis Machine ranged lower early on the local market, the last named dropping 4 points, but Wagner Electric rallied for a 1/2 point net gain. National Candy closed unchanged and Coca-Cola Bottling fractionally lower. Brown Shoe and Stix, Baer & Fuller sold at unchanged prices. Ely-Walker and Mercantile-Commerce closed higher.

FINANCIAL NOTES

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 21.—Employment in 21 major Toledo (O.) plants, mainly automotive, totaled 24,469 for the week ended June 20, a decrease of 473 from the preceding week. Statistics for the like week last year showed 40,969 employed.

W. S. Parish, president of the Humble Oil & Refining Co., has announced that the company will rescind its announced intention of withdrawing as a crude oil purchaser in six Texas counties on July 1.

Automobile production in the United States in May totaled 417,154 cars, compared with 442,850 in April and 694,491 for May, 1929. Production for the five months ended May 31 totaled 1,882,616, against 2,679,511 in the like period in 1929 and 1,894,725 in the corresponding period in 1928.

Common stock of the International Salt Co. will be quoted ex-rights on the New York Stock Exchange on June 20 and the rights will be admitted to trading on that date. Rights must be settled on July 5 and will expire July 21.

Sears Roebuck Sales.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 21.—Sales of Sears, Roebuck & Co. for the sixth period of its 12-month year, May 22 to June 18, totaled $1,475,143, compared with $24,083,389 in the same period of last year. The decrease was 7.4 per cent. For the six periods, Jan. 2 to June 18, the company's sales were $12,276,013, a loss of $5,011,480, or 2.3 per cent, from the $17,817,493 total for the corresponding period of 1929.

PRODUCE EXCHANGE STOCKS

NEW YORK, June 21.—Following is a list of some of the stocks traded in the New York Produce Exchange, giving sales and high, low and closing prices.

SECURITIES	Sales	High	Low	Close
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2

BOSTON STOCK MARKET

BOSTON, June 21.—Following is a list of active stock trading on the Boston Stock Exchange, giving sales, high, low and closing prices.

SECURITIES	Sales	High	Low	Close
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Am. Fruit & Veg.	20	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2

New York Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The weekly statement of the New York Clearing House shows total currency and deposits of $13,574,716, decrease, total net deposits (average) $30,184,000, increase, time deposits (average) $35,184,000, increase, clearing, week ending June 20, $20,280,780, clearing, week ending June 19, $17,471,330; clearing, this day, $1,453,028.75.

WANTED SALES MANAGER

A reliable man with selling and organizing ability to act as sales manager for the Fluorocarbon Corporation (of Buffalo, N. Y.), operator of the largest plants in the world devoted exclusively to the manufacture of fluorocarbon and other chemical products. Applications must be made in writing to Dr. Douglas B. Clark, Fluorocarbon Corporation, 1100 Military Road, Buffalo, N. Y. State qualifications fully, experience and family conditions, general knowledge of the territory, and ability to sell, handle, manage, plan, and execute campaigns and operating on a budget basis. State if salary and commission acceptable.

SHARES SOLD NEW YORK, June 21.

2,310,700 shares, compared with 2,606,470 yesterday, 1,933,100 last week and 1,470,000 the week before. Sales from Jan. 1 to date were 46,823,438 shares, compared with 32,513,500 a year ago and 41,320,362 two years ago.

(Copyright, 1930, Standard Statistics Co.)

COMPARATIVE STOCK MARKET AVERAGES

	50 Industrials	20 Railroads	10 Utilities	90 Total
Saturday	118.6	207.8	214.3	160.8
Previous day	118.5	207.8	214.3	160.8
Week ago	118.3	207.8	214.3	160.8
Year ago	118.3	207.8	214.3	160.8
2 years ago	118.3	207.8	214.3	160.8
High (1929)	120.4	211.7	214.3	205.8
Low (1929)	118.6	207.8	214.3	156.2

Range for Stocks and Annual Dividends

16	Am	Bank Note 3B	8	71 1/2	70
65	Am	Beet Sugar	1	7	7
27	Am	Bosch Mag	5	30	30
40 1/2	Am	Brake Sh 2.40	6	43	43
4 1/2	Am	Brown & El	5	13	12 1/2
86	Am	Can 4	$31	115	110 1/2
132 1/2	Am	Can pfd 7	1	145	145 1/2
44	Am	Car & Fdy 6	10	45	44 1/2
95	Am	Car & Fdy pf 7	1	99	99
45	Am	Chain 3	4	45	45
70 1/2	Am	Chain pfd 7	1	90	90

ST. LOUIS MARKET

And Annual in Dollars.
	30s	High.	Low.	Close.	Net Chgs.	Close Bid.	Close Askd.
Shoe S
Sole Bottling	30	57 1/2	37 1/2	37 1/2		37 1/2	37 1/2
Mfg 2.50	53	20	20	20	1	20	20
Mfg 1st 8	10	105 1/2	105 1/2	105 1/2		105	105
National Bk	31	95 1/2	79	79	2	79 1/2	79 1/2

Small Shop	3	185	54%	54	84	54	54	34
Machine	pid 6	310	106	106	106	106	106	34
File-Commerce	15	38	231%	230	230	230	230	34
Case 2	3	150	21	21	21	21	21	21
at 1.50		80	13	13	13	13	13	13
Stl pref 3		6	11	11	11	11	11	12%
com		6	19	19	19	19	19	19
Public Service		5	3	3	3	3	3	3
er & Fuller 1.50		30	20	20	20	20	20	20
Stl Bell pid 7		30	119%	119	119	119	119	119

...ing Met Co	243	102	102	%	31%	21%
Railway 4%	241	68	68		68	68%

Leading Bid and Asked Quotations on Day's Inactive Stocks.

STOCK.	Bid, Asked		SECURITY.	Bid, Asked
...s Na Bank 8	200	205	Laclede Gas pfd 5	50	50
... Bank 12	200	205	Laclede Fuel Co 3	100	100
...-Am Trust Co 12	240	250	Laclede-Christy 1.25	100	100

Bank 12	240	250	McQuay-Norris 2	40	42
and Trust 6	140	160	Meleto Sea Food	96	100
Valley 13	140	160	Melroe and pld 7	96	100
Union Trust 16	575	575	mMarathon Shoe
Transy Trust	60		mMeyer-Blanke 1.55
Co	15	15
com 2.60	15	33%	Mermod, Jaccard pld 7
pld 7	95	97	Moloney Elec A 4	54	58
pld 7	45	48	Mosouri Portland Cement 2	30	31
av B	8%	8%	mMoligan-Davis
enberg & Cohen com	10	10	national Canal 1st pld 7	11	107

perbit 5	80	National Cash 25 pfd 7	57	80
perbit 5	80	National Bearing Metals 8	57	80
perbit pfd 7	84	xdo pfd 7	100	101
Chain Stores 1.50	81	Nicholas-Beasler	3	4
Chain Stores pfd 4	38	Pedigo-Weber Shoe com 1.50	12	14
Chain Stores pfd 4	39	Richard Walcutt	50	50
Corp 1.20	14	Rice-Steele Drsg G 1st pfd 7	94	100
Shoe com 3	37	do 2d pfd 7	94	100
Shoeshoe pfd 8	110	S v S B G 1st pfd 6	50	70
Shoeshoe pfd 7	119	do 2d pfd 6	50	70
Shoeshoe 2.50	50	Securities Inv Co com 3	30	31
Shoeshoe pfd 7	90

Mfg Equip 2.20	5	8	Secur Intw Co pfd s	108 1/2	94
Mfg Equip 1	1	16	Shelba Water Pfd 7		107
Shoe Mfg Equip 1.75	21	16	Shoemakers pfd 7		98
Shoe 1st pfd 7	88 1/2	92	Simth-Davis	8	20
Electric 4	110	92	Xelofit Packing Co 1.20		98
Lead 3	3	4	Southern Acid com s	47 1/2	23 1/2
Co 1	26	26	St Louis Bank Bldr 1	10	11
Co 1	20	23	St Louis Screw 1.50		92
Co A 5	60	72	Co pfd	100	100
			StL Louis Car com	45 1/2	10

nd e	102	x81. Louis Car ptd 7	90
ptd 7	88	x81. Louis Drug ptd 3.50	90
ari com	25	x81. Louis Cotton Compres	80 on Works com	15	x81 Louis Amusement	11
roceral ptd 7	31	x81 Louis Pub Sr ptd 7	15
Shoen Shoe	35	x81 Sunset Stores	20
Press Brice ptd	50	x81 Sunset Stores ptd 3.50	20
		x81 Washam Tel Sec ptd 7	100
		x81 Washam Electric Corp ptd	106
		E City & Sub	82
		E City & Sub C Co	95
		E City & Sub C Co	95

Press Brick com	1 1/2	33	Houston Oil 5 1/8	102 1/2	102 1/2
Packing com	3 1/2	33	Moloney Elec 5 1/8	94	95
Packing pfd	3 1/2	4 1/2	Pierco Bid 5 1/8	95	100
Packing pfd	78	80	Pontiac R Ext 35	97	98
S Shoe 2.50	25	25	Scraper 7 1/2	97	98 1/2
S Shoe 2.50	37	37	St Louis Car 65	95 1/2	91
Equipment 1	4 1/2	40	St. Louis Chain Store 65	97	97
March 1	69	69	Wells 40	97	97
March pfd 3.25	36 1/2	36 1/2	Little R & H 4 1/2	95	95

New York Stock Market (Continued)

Age for 1930-31	Stocks and Annual Dividends in Dollars.	Sales in 100s.	High.	Low.	Last Hour.	Net Change
60	Ward Bak pfd 7 ..	3	60 1/2	58 3/4	58 3/4	- 1 3/4
30	Warner Pict 4	463	42 1/2	41 1/4	41 1/2	- 1 1/4
25 1/2	Wm Pic pfd 2.20	2	45 1/4	45 1/4	45 1/4	- 1/2
13 1/2

41	Warren Bros 1	37	13%	13	13%
15	Warren F & P 2	8	42%	42%	42%	1%
4	Webster Eisen	6	26	25%	25%
20	Wesson Oil & S 2	1	5	5	5
49	Wes Oil & S pfd 4	10	23%	23	23%
4	West Dairy B	1	68	68	68
103	W E & M 1st pf 5	x30	128%	128%	128%	2%
10	Western Mary	21	19%	20	20	1

14%	West Mar 2d 2p	9	20%	20	—	1%
15	West Pacific	3	20	20	+	—
87%	West Pac pf 7	1	40%	40%	40%	1%
87	West P E 7 pc pf 7	x10	109%	109%	109%	—
88	West P E 7 pc pf 7	x40	101	101	101	—
154	West Union Tel 8 ..	6	158	158	158	—
36	Westing Air 2 ..	2	40%	32%	32%	+
100	West El & Mfg 5 ..	171	131	127%	129%	—
32%	West El In A 2 ..	1	34	34	34	—

20	Westaco Chi 2	2	32	32	32	1
27%	White Motor 2	6	29	28%	28%	1
21%	White Rk M Sp 4	5	44%	43	44%	1%
1	White Sew M	3	6%	6%	6%
18%	Wilcox O & G	1	18%	18%	18%	1%
5%	Willis Over	18	5%	5%	6	1%
62	Willis Over pf 7	2	62	62%	62
25%	Willson pf	2	43	43	43	3
52%	Westworth 7.40	21	53%	53%	53

73	Worth P M	43	123	115	121	1%
74	Wor P&M pt A 7	3	92	92	92	1%
75	Wor P&M pt B 6	2	86	86	86	+
66	Wrixley Jr 4	3	70	70	70	1%
46	Yale & Towne 4	1	45 1/4	45 1/4	45 1/4	1%
76	Yell Tr & C	177	21 1/4	20	20 1/4	1%
32 1/2	Young S & W 3	3	33 1/2	33	33	1%
71	Young Sh & T 5	6	115	115	115

SALES—CONTINUED				FOREIGN EXCHANGE
Sales: High: Low: Close.				NEW YORK, June 21.—Foreign exchange quotations were as follows:
ESTIC BONDS.				ENGLAND Sterling. Demand $4.85 11-16; cables, $4.85 1/2. 90-day
13	100 3/4	100 3/4	100 3/4
11	81 1/2	81 1/2	81 1/2

32	103 1/2	103 1/2	103 1/2
33	12 3/4	22 3/4	22 3/4
34	10 3/4	90 3/4	90 3/4
35	32 100 1/2	100 1/2	100 1/2
36	10 5/8	98	98
37	10 5/8	98	98
38	1 2/3	92 3/4	92 3/4
39	1 2/3	92 3/4	92 3/4
40	17 1/2	97 1/2	97 1/2
41	8 101 1/4	101 1/4	101 1/4
42	8 100 3/4	99 3/4	99 3/4

	1	102	102	107	%	SWITZERLAND - Franc, D 19.84.
44	3	NS	85	85	%	SPAIN - Pesta, D 11.64.
	7	3	91	91	%	GREECE - Dracma, D 19.84.
						POLAND - Zloty, D 11.35.
CIGN BONDS						CZECH-SLOVAKIA - Crown, D 19.84.
8	1	89	89	89	%	HUNGARY - Forint, D 19.84.
	1	85	85	85	%	AUSTRIA - Crown, D 19.84.
						RUMANIA - Lei, D 14.11.
						ARGENTINA - Peso, D 19.84.
	2	32	82	82	%	BRAZIL - Milreis, D 11.35.
	22	57	96	96	%	TOKIO - Yen, D 37.06.
						YOKOHAMA - Yen, D 19.84.

[illegible]

2	83	82	83	Rubr G 6% 53	81	84	84	84
10	82	82	82	Rubr E 6% 53	81	87	87	87
1	81	81	81	Santiago C 7 61	1	83	83	83
1	101	101	101	Sauda F 56 A 55	10102	102	102	102
1	83	83	83	Stinnes T 38 xw	2	89	89	89
1	82	82	82	do 7 53	1	84	84	84
8	82	80	80	Tarni E 6% 53	1	86	85	85
1	81	81	81	Cn F Ser 7 56 xw	5	95	93	93
8	73	73	73	Un Indust 6% 41	5	92	91	91

MODORE GARY AND COMPANY
KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

1. The books will be closed to transfer on June re-opened on July 1, 1930.

(Signed) C. A. BENNETT,
Senior Vice-President and Treasurer

10

NEW TARIFF LAW AID TO BUSINESS, DECLARES MELLON

Treasury Secretary Says Removal of Uncertainty Is Contribution to Trade Stability.

SAYS FOREIGN TRADE WILL CONTINUE

Sees in Flexible Provision an Opportunity to Adjust Rates to Changing Conditions.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon praises the new tariff law in a statement issued for publication today saying it had removed an obstacle to business recovery by eliminating the uncertainty of the last 15 months.

He deprecated "gloomy prophecies" made by opponents of the Hawley-Smoot bill and said "the notion that this law is going to destroy our foreign trade is certainly without foundation."

The new law was defended also by Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, in a radio address delivered last night and President Hoover announced he was contemplating some changes in the present personnel of the Tariff Commission. He expects to choose the members of the new commission and send their names to the Senate before Congress adjourns.

"Fears Exaggerated."

Repeated requests for comment Secretary Mellon led him to announce his opinion that "the final enactment of the tariff law, far from placing a new obstacle in the way of business recovery, removes one by eliminating the uncertainty of the last 15 months, and by its promise of more businesslike revision in the future makes a definite contribution to business stability."

The statement said the question directed to Mellon sought his opinion as to whether the enactment of the Smoot-Hawley tariff law would adversely affect the business interests of the United States and retard a business recovery.

"I do not believe that it will," Mellon said. "It seems to me that fears and criticisms have been greatly exaggerated. Whenever a new protective tariff law has been enacted gloomy prophecies have been made. They have failed to materialize as far back as I can remember and my memory goes back many years. The rates in the bill as it passed the House a year ago were higher than the bill recently signed by the President. Yet business at that time did not take alarm. There seems to be no reason why it should now. I know of no industry that is seriously hurt while those industries which need additional protection and received it are benefited."

Foreign Trade to Continue.

"I have canvassed the situation with the Secretary of Commerce, and the notion that this law is going to destroy foreign trade, expressed in some quarters, is certainly without foundation. The United States will continue to buy a vast quantity of foreign products and to sell the products of its farms, mines and factories all over the world. In so far as imports are concerned, foreign nations that do business with us would do well to remember that the all-important factor is the maintenance of the high purchasing power and standard of living of the American people."

The enactment of this measure brings to an end 15 months of uncertainty. American industries know now where they stand and will, I am confident, adjust themselves without difficulty to new conditions.

"There seems to be an impression that the new bill makes a sweeping revision upward of existing rates. While it is true that there is a sharp increase in rates applicable to the agricultural schedule, generally speaking, other rates cannot be said to have been advanced sufficiently to alter substantially our existing economic position. In fact, on a comparatively few of the major items have been changed. I do not mean to imply that the bill is free from defects. No tariff bill is. But this measure at least, by its own terms, provides the means whereby inequalities and errors may be adjusted."

"I look upon the flexible provisions as highly important. I believe that they offer the opportunity not only to correct errors and adjust rates to meet new and changing conditions but that they lay a foundation for a businesslike method of tariff revision, free from the pull of sectional and political interests that seem to make a scientific and well-balanced revision by the legislative body almost impossible."

"If these provisions are intelligently and courageously applied, they should go a long way toward making another legislative revision of the tariff unnecessary for many years to come."

"This of itself is of inestimable benefit to business, for there is nothing more unfavorable to pro-

Flying Record-Breakers

EDWARD P. SCHLEE (left) and WILLIAM S. BROCK, WHO flew from the Atlantic to the Pacific across the United States in less than 14 hours, smashing all records. They crossed the United States from Jacksonville, Fla., to San Diego, Cal., in 13 hours, 53 minutes, 30 seconds, averaging 165 miles an hour for the 2100 miles. They are shown here after landing at San Diego. Then they flew back to Florida in 16 hours, 50 minutes.

MASSACHUSETTS HAS MOST LARGE CITIES

Contains Nine of More Than 100,000 — Ohio, California and New Jersey Next.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Massachusetts, which reported a 4,364,972 population, an increase of 13.5 per cent over 1920, is the only state which has nine cities of more than 100,000 population.

The closest competitors are Ohio, California and New Jersey. Ohio has seven such cities, and California and New Jersey have six each. In Massachusetts only Lynn was added by the 1930 census, the other eight having been on the 1920 list. Their present ratings follow: Boston, 733,451; Worcester, 196,295; Springfield, 149,529; Fall River, 114,348; Cambridge, 113,650; New Bedford, 112,804; Somerville, 102,604; Lynn, 102,292, and Lowell, 100,650.

California has Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Hollywood, San Diego and Long Beach, the last three being newcomers to the big city class. The New Jersey list includes Newark, Jersey City, Paterson, Trenton, Camden and Elizabeth.

TWO MEN ARRESTED, ACCUSED OF WIDESPREAD STOCK FRAUD

Pair Held in Kansas City Said to Have Sold Worthless Paper as Ford Securities.

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 21.—Two men who are said to have sold worthless securities for thousands of dollars in various parts of the United States were arrested late yesterday on warrants issued in Santa Ana, Cal., and Denver, Colo.

The men said they were Ralph H. Gorman, 43 years old, and Hugh E. Doyle, 36. They maintained offices in a business building here. Their furniture is reported to have been attached by Edward Hyde, for a time their attorney, because they failed to pay him.

C. E. Buchner, assistant manager of the Better Business Bureau here, said Gorman represented himself as vice president of the Ford Foreign Motors Company. He is said to have told prospects that a vast quantity of foreign products and to sell the products of its farms, mines and factories all over the world. In so far as imports are concerned, foreign nations that do business with us would do well to remember that the all-important factor is the maintenance of the high purchasing power and standard of living of the American people.

OKLAHOMA AMERICAN LEGION OPENS HOME FOR ORPHANS

By the Associated Press.

PONCA CITY, Ok., June 17.—So urgent was the demand for a home for the orphans of former service men, that the State American Legion has informally opened a $25,000 home for the orphans of the war. With 14 new members included, the Legion now is caring for 66 children at the home.

Constructed as the first wing of an administration building, the offices were turned into a shelter when the need of the orphans for homes was discovered.

Money for the new addition was raised among Legionnaires in the State through a second endowment fund drive recently. The State Legislature appropriated money during the last session for the maintenance of the home.

The land on which the home was erected was donated to the Legion by E. W. Marland, millionaire Ponca City oil man. Marland also donated the first money for the endowment fund which was used to construct the first units.

Formal dedication of the new home will be about July 1.

perity than uncertainty and frequent necessity to adjust economic conditions to legislative enactments.

"In short, it seems to me that the final enactment of the tariff law, far from placing a new obstacle in the way of business recovery, removes one by eliminating the uncertainty of the last 15 months and by its promise of more businesslike revision in the future makes a definite contribution to business stability."

500 ARE INJURED WHEN POLICE CLUB MOB IN BOMBAY

480 Officers, Some Mounted, Charge Crowd Meeting in Maidan Esplanade in Violation of Edict.

TROOPS STAND BY, PREPARED TO ACT

Nationalists Gather After Government Forbids Parade as Show of Strength to Congress Head.

By the Associated Press.

BOMBAY, June 21.—Two hundred persons, among them five women, were injured and taken to hospitals today when police charged to break up a nationalist demonstration in the Maidan Esplanade.

The police, some of whom were mounted, wielded their bamboo clubs with telling effect and drove the throngs from the thoroughfare, which authorities last night forbade as an assembly place for the next two weeks.

Many received serious wounds. Among these were two women. Ambulances stood by during the melee and carried the disabled nationalists to hospitals.

About 500 persons were treated for minor injuries besides the 200 sent to hospitals. The police force consisted of 400 foot police, 50 mounted police and 30 officers.

Troops in Readiness.

Troops stood by to act in the event police were unable to cope with the situation. The demonstration was planned yesterday. The nationalists intended to march in a show of strength before Pandit Motilal Nehru, acting president of the All-India National Congress. The Government, learning of the intentions, forbade assembly in the Esplanade.

The ruling was seized upon by the nationalists as offering another opportunity of civil disobedience and they gathered in the Esplanade, intending to start their procession at 7 a. m. An hour before this hundreds of police assembled and finally ordering the crowd to disperse, charged.

Three Futile Charges.

Three futile charges were made. A few persons were injured. Finally the mounted police were called on and charging right and left and striking with the clubs, succeeded in clearing the thoroughfare except for 500 or so led by women volunteers.

The crowd increased, and pushing the police out of the way, thronged back to the forbidden area. The mounted police were called on again and one of the fiercest melees since inauguration of the civil disobedience campaign ensued.

Pandit Motilal Nehru was on the scene throughout the fighting and withdrew only after the crowd had been dispersed.

Simultaneously two processions from the Girum side of the city were prohibited from passing.

Mrs. Mary Gregory, 21 years old, of 224 North Seventh street, East St. Louis, was fined $50 for possession of liquor. She told the court that she was forced to sell her earnings at her husband's bar.

She has three children. She is now separated from her husband and she testified he is supporting the children.

Dr. E. Elliott Woods of Herculaneum, Mo., made an affidavit before Justice of the Peace Worremer at Clayton yesterday charging Donna Smith, laborer, 525 Hawthorne avenue, Overland, with attempting to extort $2000 from him. A warrant charging attempt to rob will be issued today. Connor is not interested in the case.

Stimson Denies U. S. Approved OR DISAPPROVED GERMAN LOAN

Secretary of State Replies to Resolution Adopted by Senate Regarding $100,000,000 Bonds.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Denial that the State Department had exercised any right to approve or disapprove the proposed flotation of $100,000,000 of German reparations bonds in this country through the International Bank was made yesterday by Secretary Stimson in a message transmitted to the Senate through President Hoover.

Replying to a Senate resolution by Senator Glass (Dem.), Virginia, asking by what authority the State Department claimed the right to approve or disapprove the proposed loan issue, Stimson said the department did not approach any closer to any expression of approval of loans than to say that it interposes no objection to the loan or is not interested in it.

Stimson said President Harding had expressed informally to American bankers the desire of the Government to be informed regarding contemplated public flotation of foreign bonds in this country, but that the department does not require American bankers to consult it, "does not pass on the merits of foreign loans as business propositions, and does not assume any responsibility whatever in respect of loan transactions."

LEAPS FOUR STORIES TO DEATH

Manager of Jonesboro (Ark.) Produce Firm Was in Poor Health.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., June 21.—Taylor Dickey, 55 years old, manager of a produce firm at Jonesboro and formerly a resident of Cape Girardeau, Mo., ended his life yesterday by jumping from the fourth-story window of a hospital here.

Despondency over ill health and financial matters is supposed to have been the cause of his act. He came here June 13 and the following day wrote a note asking that his son, Charles, of Jonesboro, be notified in case anything should happen.

Boy, Sliding Down Stairs, Hurt.

Frank Bowtell, 13 years old, 2208 North Eleventh street, suffered fractured skull last night when he fell while sliding down an outside stair railing at the home of a neighbor. He is at City Hospital.

KANSAS CITY MAN SLAIN, SUPPOSED KIDNAPERS' VICTIM

Body of Peter McKay, Apartment House Owner, Found in Weeds on Highway 50 Near Blue River.

HOME IN DISORDER, INDICATING STRUGGLE

Bedroom Window Forced Open—He Was Shot Three Times—Last Seen Thursday Evening.

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 21.—Without any tangible clues detectives today sought the slayers of Peter McKay, a carpenter, whose body was found late yesterday in a wooded area near U. S. Highway No. 50 and the Blue River, east of here.

McKay had been shot three times and the wounds washed. The body was found by three boys returning from a swimming party. Police discovered that McKay was the owner of two three-story apartment houses near Forty-fourth and Montclair. Tenants in one of the buildings in which McKay lived, said they had not seen him since Thursday evening.

A front window in the bedroom of the Carpenter's apartment had been broken above the latch and his apartment was in disorder. A vest to the suit found on the body had been torn to shreds. Bank books in the room showed McKay had large bank deposits in other cities. A metal and leather brace he wore because of a back injury lay in a closet.

Police think he had been beaten in his room and then kidnapped and murdered. Although he had been to the two apartment houses, a downtown pawnbroker told police McKay recently had obtained a loan on his watch.

Among his effects was a will, made in 1926, ordering that his estate be sold after his death and that $1 be given to John McKay, a half brother. The will further directed that after $1000 had been given to the pastor of the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, the remainder was to be divided equally among this church, La Salle Academy and the Little Sisters of the Poor.

GETS 18-MONTH SENTENCE FOR DRY LAW CONVICTION

Len Robertson of Duquoin Pleads Guilty of Conspiracy: His

NEW YORK, June 21.—Donald Brian was re-elected president of the Catholic Actors' Guild of America. Hugh O'Connell was elected first vice president, William Galt second vice president and Wallace Ford, recording secretary.

CHIROPODISTS' ELECTION.

Dr. Paul F. Mahaffey of Springfield, Ill., was elected president of the International Association of Chiropractors at the final session of the first convention here yesterday. The 1931 convention will be held in Chicago. Other officers include Dr. C. F. Leydecker, St. Louis; Dr. C. F. Chadsworth, Wichita, Kan.; Dr. J. M. Shumaker and Dr. E. C. Stivers, Louisville, Ky.; Dr. Frank Furch and Dr. Harry Klink, Chicago, vice presidents; Dr. W. C. Loftin, Waco, Tex., secretary-treasurer.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

EXAMINERS FIND $143,700 DEFICIT IN CLOSED BANK

Report $10,000 of Customers' Bonds Missing From Aurora, Ill., Depository's Safety Boxes.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

AURORA, Mo., June 21.—A shortage of approximately $143,700 has been discovered in the Bank of Aurora, closed by its directors June 14, it is announced by two bank examiners, temporarily in charge.

Truman Richards, one of the bank examiners assigned to make an inventory of the bank's affairs, declares the examiners had discovered a shortage of $35,000 in Lawrence County's deposit with the bank, a deficit of $49,000 in a State deposit, and about $10,000 worth of customers' bonds missing from the safe deposit boxes.

Officials said at Mount Vernon yesterday that it was unlikely that a special grand jury would be called to investigate the collapse of the bank. Charles A. Landrum, County Prosecutor, said he had information regarding the shortage from the bank examiners and "it looks as if case of false entries may develop."

Landrum said he had been informed that the bank had been closed by the bank examiners and "it looks as if case of false entries may develop."

In an effort to work out some plan by which the bank can be reopened, the examiners today, pointing out that it controls and modifies all organs and tissues of the body. Overactivity of the gland results in overproduction of all the senses and may cause death. Underactivity, on the other hand, Dr. Crile explained, induces sluggishness.

The clinical conference closes today. It began June 2.

Chiropractors' Election.

Dr. Paul F. Mahaffey of Springfield, Ill., was elected president of the International Association of Chiropractors at the final session of the first convention here yesterday. The 1931 convention will be held in Chicago. Other officers include Dr. C. F. Leydecker, St. Louis; Dr. C. F. Chadsworth, Wichita, Kan.; Dr. J. M. Shumaker and Dr. E. C. Stivers, Louisville, Ky.; Dr. Frank Furch and Dr. Harry Klink, Chicago, vice presidents; Dr. W. C. Loftin, Waco, Tex., secretary-treasurer.

Catholic Actors' Elect Officers.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Donald Brian was re-elected president of the Catholic Actors' Guild of America. Hugh O'Connell was elected first vice president, William Galt second vice president and Wallace Ford, recording secretary.

CHIROPODISTS' ELECTION.

Dr. Paul F. Mahaffey of Springfield, Ill., was elected president of the International Association of Chiropractors at the final session of the first convention here yesterday. The 1931 convention will be held in Chicago. Other officers include Dr. C. F. Leydecker, St. Louis; Dr. C. F. Chadsworth, Wichita, Kan.; Dr. J. M. Shumaker and Dr. E. C. Stivers, Louisville, Ky.; Dr. Frank Furch and Dr. Harry Klink, Chicago, vice presidents; Dr. W. C. Loftin, Waco, Tex., secretary-treasurer.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed during yesterday's fire.

Dr. J. J. Clark expressed the opinion that only a safety type of film was exposed to the fire and that those who inhaled fumes from burning X-ray films at Grady Hospital, are under observation of physicians while authorities supervise the return of 250 Negro patients, removed

CAN'T RECALL FIRM
EVER MADE PROFIT

W. J. Gass Testifies at Bankruptcy Hearing on Paper Can and Tube Concern.

William J. Gass, 5177 A. Ave., a salesman, related in bankruptcy court yesterday how in 1927 he purchased an East St. Louis paper can company for about $75,000 and valued its assets at $75,000 in incorporating the Illinois Paper Can and Tube Co., now bankrupt. He insisted that he still considered the purchase a bargain, explaining the concern was in receivership the time.

Gass, a voluble witness, was unable to say whether his company had ever made a profit. Although it was "doing well" in 1927, he said, it was "doing well" in 1928. He said he moved the company to St. Louis in 1927 after a bank foreclosed a mortgage on its plant. "We still owed some money," he said, "so I went to see my friend Brinkman. He agreed to put up $10,000. Each of us was to have a half interest. Later he said he was to get three-fourths. He put in the $10,000 and paid off a note for $2,000 and from time to time put in more money."

Brinkman, a real estate dealer, had testified at the former hearing that he took over the company a favor to Gass, his old school chum. Brinkman said he sold stock taken over from Gass to Bernard and Louis Ottens, real estate dealers. In 1928, he continued advance money to the firm.

The Ottens Brothers have filed suit to avoid payment of $21,500 notes given for the stock, alleging they were not to be held liable for the notes if the company failed.

Gass testified he quit the concern in November, 1928, because of dissension and because he "wanted to make a little money."

About this time, he said, the firm made a settlement with creditors. "With all creditors?" he was asked. "Whoever didn't hold didn't get anything," was the reply.

Adrian W. Ketchum, secretary of the bankrupt firm and manager of Forest Park Highlands, in describing the firm's difficulties, said that it either had plenty of orders and no goods or plenty of goods and no orders. Gass, the vice president, was placed in charge of sales and Ketchum of production. Ketchum quit when the Ottens came in.

Bankruptcy schedules list debt of $12,023 and assets of $45,573, including machinery valued $39,335.

tures

ow

kets" by which extras to stars who for 25 years with sexes and all use of the speak-lies known English s enthusiasm by London to Aus-

hort story

nor ine of the

PATCH

SPORTS

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

The Only Evening Newspaper in St. Louis With the Associated Press News Service

ST. LOUIS, SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1930.

Stock Market
Closing Prices
Complete Sales
Tables in Part 1, Pages 7, 8, 9.

PRICE 2 CENTS

PHILADELPHIA 13, CARDINALS 3; BOSTON 3, BROWNS 2

O'Doul Hits Two Homers Off Haines; Goslin Drives In One Run

FISHER ALSO RAPS FOUR-BAGGER WITH ONE ON IN SIXTH

By J. Roy Stockton.
Of the Post-Dispatch Sport Staff.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK, June 21.—The Cardinals lost to Boston's Phillies this afternoon in the second game of the series. The score was 13 to 3.

A small Saturday crowd of about 10,000 attended. The umpires were Reardon, Clark and Magerkurth.

With Ray Blades under suspension, George Fisher went to left field for the Cardinals.

FIRST INNING.—PHILLIES.—Adams threw out Southern. Douthitt and Gelbert interfered with each other and Sherlock's pop fly fell safe for a double. O'Doul singled to right scoring Sherlock. Klein forced O'Doul. Frisch to Gelbert. Klein was out stealing. Mancuso to Frisch. ONE RUN.

CARDINALS.—Douthitt fouled to Whitney. Adams struck out Frisch grounded to Sherlock.

SECOND INNING.—PHILLIES.—Whitney singled past. Bottomley, Frisberg hit into a double play. Gelbert to Frisch to Bottomley. Thenewson popped a single over Frisch's head. Davis popped to Gelbert.

CARDINALS.—Thenewson made a fine stop behind second and threw out Bottomley. Watkins walked. Fisher fouled to Whitney. Mancuso singled to left. Watkins stopping at second. Gelbert went to Thenewson.

THIRD INNING.—PHILLIES.—Adams made a good stop of Collins' hot smash and threw him out. Frisch hit Southern's fly in the sun and it went for a single. Sherlock lined to Frisch who threw to Bottomley, doubling Southern off first.

CARDINALS.—Haines singled through the box. Douthitt struck out Adams filed to Klein. Frisch walked. Bottomley struck out. It was his twentieth trip to the plate without a hit.

FOURTH INNING.—PHILLIES.—O'Doul hit a home run over the right field pavilion. Klein walked. Whitney doubled to left, sending Klein to third, and on Fisher's wild throw second, Klein scored. Frisberg sent a sacrifice fly to Douthitt. Whitney going to third. Thenewson singled to left, scoring Whitney. Davis beat out a grounder to Bottomley. Thenewson stopping at second. Collins hit into a double play, Frisch to Frisch to Bottomley.

THREE RUNS.—PHILLIES.—Adams threw out Southern. Sherlock lined to Douthitt. O'Doul hit into the right field pavilion for his second home run of the game. Haines fouled to O'Doul.

CARDINALS.—Haines singled to left for his second hit. Douthitt forced Haines. Frisberg to Thenewson. Adams forced Douthitt. Frisberg to Thenewson. Frisch singled to center, sending Adams to third and on Southern's fumble, Frisch went to second. Bottomley popped to Thenewson.

SIXTH INNING.—PHILLIES.—Gelbert went into center field for Whitney's pop fly. Frisberg doubled to right center. Thenewson singled to left, scoring Frisberg. Adams threw out Davis. Collins filed to Watkins. ONE RUN.

CARDINALS.—Watkins singled to right and went to second on Klein's fumble. Fisher hit a home run over the right field pavilion, scored behind Watkins. Davis drew an error when he dropped Mancuso's foul. Mancuso filed to O'Doul. Gelbert struck out. Haines also struck out. TWO RUNS.

SEVENTH INNING.—PHILLIES.—Southern singled to center. Sherlock was called out on strikes. O'Doul's hit right lodged between the pavilion wall and the protective screen for a two-run homer. Southern stopping at third. Klein was purpose-

Baseball Scores

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R.H.E.

CLEVELAND AT PHILADELPHIA

0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 4 1

PHILADELPHIA

0 0 0 1 0 2 0 4 X 7 11 1

Batteries: Cleveland—Harrier, Holloway and Bryant; Philadelphia—Walberg and Cochran.

CHICAGO AT WASHINGTON

0 0 0 2 0 3 0 2 0 7 19 1

WASHINGTON

0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 2 8 3

Batteries: Chicago—Braxton, Corvay and Herz and Lane; Washington—Brown, Thomas and Spencer.

DETROIT AT NEW YORK

0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 5 0 0

NEW YORK

2 0 0 0 0 0 1 X 3 6 2

Batteries: Detroit—Hogsett and Renna; New York—Fennock and E. Harrigan.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R.H.E.

NEW YORK AT PITTSBURGH

0 0 0 2 0 0 0 1 1 6 15 2

PITTSBURGH

1 0 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 5 10 2

Batteries: New York—Mitchell and O'Farrell; Pittsburgh—Brann, Spencer and Boal.

SECOND GAMES.

BROOKLYN AT CINCINNATI

0 0 0 1 2 0 0 2 5 12 1

CINCINNATI

1 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 5 5 1

Batteries: Brooklyn—Moss, Thompson and Pielich; Cincinnati—May and Gooch.

Game called in eighth to permit Brooklyn to catch train.

FIRST GAME.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R.H.E.

BROOKLYN

0 1 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 4 7 2

CINCINNATI

0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 5 5 3

Batteries: Brooklyn—Patterson and Lopez; Cincinnati—Campbell, Rizer, Johnson and Schaefer.

BOSTON AT CHICAGO

6 1 0 3 0 3

CHICAGO

1 0 0 0 0 0

Batteries: Boston—Zachary, Cimmarone and Quinn; Chicago—Teasdale, O'Connell and Taylor.

FIRST GAME.

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R.H.E.

Boston

1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 6 8 3

Chicago

0 0 1 2 1 0 0 0 0 1 5 0 3

Batteries: Boston—R. Smith, Cummings, Hane, Seefeldt, Brandt and Spencer; Chicago—Blake and Teasdale and Harriott.

STREET AND BLADES DRAW 3-DAY PENALTY

Manager Gabby Street and Outfielder Ray Blades of the Cardinals received notice of a three-day suspension this morning from President Heydler as a result of their argument with Umpire Magerkurth yesterday.

JONES AND PARTNER WIN CHARITY MATCH

BIRMINGHAM, England, June 21.—Paired with Dr. William Tredwell, 1927 British Amateur champion, Bobby Jones, who yesterday won the British open, defeated Stanley Lunt of Worcester, and Eric Fiddian of Stourbridge, in a four-ball match played for charity today. The score was 3 and 2 with Jones and Tredwell having the ball score of 69 to their opponents' 72.

Babe Ruth Hits 23d Homer Off Detroit Hurler

NEW YORK, June 21.—Babe Ruth hit his twenty-third home run of the season off Elio Hogsett in the eighth inning of today's game between the Yankees and Detroit. The bases were empty, Ruth being the first batter of the inning. The Yankees won the game, 3-2.

IRONSIDES SETS NEW TRACK MARK AT FAIRMOUNT IN TAKING HANDICAP

FAIRMOUNT RESULTS

Weather clear; track fast.

First Race.—Six furlongs.

The Moon (J. McMillan) 3:24 5/8

San Ami (J. McMillan) 3:24 3/8

Margaret Parker (Ben. Coy.) 3:25

Time, 1:13 1/2. Cuyana, Sweep-Net, Nellie Belle, Pagan, Henry Bronnemer and Rumold also ran.

Second Race.—One and one-eighth miles.

Thistle Arrow (W. J. Jones) 7:50 4/5

Queen Whims (Benck) 7:50 3/5

Shasta Belle (C. Perry) 7:51 1/5

Nellie Belle, Pagan, Henry Bronnemer and Rumold also ran.

Third Race.—Five and one-half furlongs.

Birthday Gift (J. J. Jones) 5:48 3/8

Battle Sweep (E. Goodrich) 5:49 3/8

Mass, Halligan (H. Mor.) 5:49 1/2

Time, 1:07. Broad A. Shasta Brown, Nellie Belle, Pagan, Henry Bronnemer and Rumold also ran.

Fourth Race.—Six and seven-eighths furlongs.

Fifth (W. J. Jones) 6:36 3/4

Mole Hill (G. C. Jones) 6:36 3/4

Starling (G. C. Jones) 6:36 3/4

Time, 1:44 1/2. Queen Whims, Nellie Belle, Pagan, Henry Bronnemer and Rumold also ran.

Scratches.

1—Mystery Ballot, Jack O'Leary, Griff W. Knappe, Sinner, Leo, Good Sam, Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

scored his second victory in successive days here this afternoon, winning the $200 St. Louis handicap from Mole Hill, Easter Stockings and three others. He won by half a length and set a new track record for a mile and 70 yards, smashing a mark which has stood since the fall of 1927.

Yesterday afternoon this same Ironsides defeated one of the best racers at the track, Nellie Custer, by a head in a terrific drive over the six furlong route.

Walter L. Kohn, owner of the Ironsides, a 5-year-old son of Man-O-War, accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in Fairmount turf history when he

Batting Leader, Playing Here

"CHUCK" KLEIN.

Although stopped in the opening contest of the series at Sportsman's Park with the Cardinals after hitting safely in 25 consecutive games, Klein still tops the National League in batting.

DISTRICT TRACK MEET SLATED AT FRANCIS FIELD; 150 ENTERED

By Damon Kirby.

With more than 150 athletes scheduled to compete, the Western A. A. U.'s annual track and field meet will be held at Francis Field, near the Washington University campus, this afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. It will be the first Western district meet since 1927.

Both Washington and St. Louis universities, as well as several city and county high schools, the Y. M. C. A. and St. Louis athletic clubs are represented by the leading athletes of the district. Competition will be conducted in both the men's and women's divisions.

Lacking funds, the Western A. A. U. is not assured of sending winners to national A. A. U. meets this summer, but it is within the power of the local officials to recommend that outstanding athletes be sent, and an appropriation from the national body may be forthcoming for this purpose if some outstanding records are set today.

The men's national will be held in Pittsburgh in late August, while the women's national is scheduled at Dallas, July 4.

Whether or not sufficient funds are raised by the A. A. U., a group of Western A. A. U. girls athletes, headed by Miss Dee Beckmann, Olympic star, plan to compete in the women's national. They expect to drive to Dallas at their own expense if their transportation is not provided by the A. A. U.

Four teams are represented in the girls' division. They are the Western Women's A. C. City of Los Angeles, C. C. and Headlight, C. C. Kingdom House, with Miss McCarthy, led 4 up, at the end of the morning 1st.

MCCARTHY RETAINS METROPOLITAN TITLE

ST. ALBANS, N. Y., June 21.—Maureen J. McCarthy Jr., former Georgetown star, successfully defended her metropolitan amateur golf championship today, trouncing Pennington Miller Jones, a clubmate at Green Meadows, 5 and 7, in the 36-hole final match. McCarthy led 4 up, at the end of the morning 1st.

London Wins Another.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 21.—Jim London defeated Chief Tommy Marvin, 295-pound Indian wrestler, here last night. London took the first fall in 21 minutes and the second in two minutes. London is recognized in some states as world heavyweight champion.

JACK RUSSELL WINS MOUND DUEL FROM WALTER STEWART

By a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
BOSTON, June 21.—The Browns dropped the final game of the series to the Boston Red Sox this afternoon, giving the home club the series, two victories to one defeat.

The score was 3 to 2.

The game:

FIRST INNING.—BROWNS.—Blue singled past Sweeney. Badgro singled to center, sending Blue and sending Badgro to third. Kress struck out. Gullic beat out a hit along the third base line. Badgro scoring. Goslin stopping at second. Meillo sent a long fly to Webb. Goslin taking third after the catch. O'Rourke forced Gullic. Narlesky to Miller.

TWO RUNS.—BOSTON.—Oliver fouled to Blue. Sweeney fanned. Carritt filed to Meillo in short right field. Thenewson—BROWNS.—Perrell doubled along the left-field line. Ferrell was nipped off second. Berry to Rhyme. Stewart filed to Oliver. Rhyme threw out Blue.

BOSTON.—Webb walked. Miller lined to Badgro. Narlesky hit to Stewart, who deflected the ball to O'Rourke, who threw the runner out. Webb raced to third as the bag was uncovered. Rhyme doubled to right-center, scoring Webb. Berry beat out a hit to Kress. Rhyme going to third. Russell singled to left, scoring Rhyme and sending Berry to third. Oliver filed to Badgro. TWO RUNS.

SCHMELING AGREES TO DEFEND TITLE AGAINST SHARKEY IN SEPTEMBER

CHAMPION SAYS HE WILL START TRAINING FOR GO IN AUGUST

By Max Schmeling.

World's Heavyweight Champion.
NEW YORK, June 21.—I will fight Jack Sharkey in September. Then I think I will show you something and I will show him something, too. I will be the first heavyweight champion of the world to keep his promise. After my recent fight with Sharkey I said: "I did not wish to win that way." To Sharkey I said, "I will give you another chance." And to the American people I said, "I am grateful. You have been kind to me. I owe you much. I wish to repay it."

Sharkey spoiled the happiest ambition of my life. I wished to be undisputed heavyweight champion of the world. In my heart I know I can be that. I know it was not Sharkey who stood in my way. And then he spoiled my ambition with a low punch. I am champion, but I am not happy. Sharkey will pay for that in September. He will learn how to punch.

Wants 37 1/2 Per Cent.
You think, perhaps, I put obstacles in the way so the match does not take place. I do not believe so. I think the American public has been fooled very often. You think I demand such money that the fight cannot be? I do not do that. I defend my title for my champion's purse, 37 1/2 per cent. And I asked only that they fulfill the conditions they say they will take care of. They release from Buell. All right, that is enough.

I have said that while Buell is still in the contract I do not fight. I mean that. If Buell is out of the contract and I am protected from him, the fight is on. Is that unreasonable? I only ask the Garden to protect my money from Buell. I wish to have the mind free for the defense of the title, no worries, no trouble. Is that all right?

Will See Camera Fight.
I am glad that will be settled. Now my plans are clear. Now I go to see that camera fight and maybe study him a little. I cannot rest it out of my head that perhaps some day I must fight him. Soon I am going back to Germany. I think within a week, to rest. My mother wishes to see me. She is worried over me. For a month I rest, just with light exercises; the early part of August I will return again, ready to begin my training to defend my title against Sharkey. I hope you are pleased with my decision.
(Copyright, 1930.)

Major League Leaders.
(Including Games of June 20)
NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Batting—Klein, Phillies, .418.
Runs—English, Cubs, 40.
Runs batted in—Klein, Phillies, 70.
Hits—Klein, Phillies, 89.
Triples—Cuyler, Cubs, 21.
Home runs—Berger, Braves, 20.
Stolen bases—Cuyler, Cubs, 16.
AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Batting—Cochrane, Athletics, .404.
Runs—Ruth, Yankees, 71.
Runs batted in—Gehrige, Yankees, 70.
Hits—Hodapp, Indians, 90.
Triples—Gehringer and McManus, Tigers, 20.
Home runs—Ruth, Yankees, 22.
Stolen bases—Rice, Senators, 22.
Leading Batters.
NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Player—Club. G. A. B. R. H. P. E. Klein, Phillies, .51 214 35 80 414 Hogan, N. Y. 38 120 30 49 486 P. Warner, Phila. 47 175 37 60 390 Herman, Bklyn. 51 211 54 67 384 O'Farrell, N. Y. 39 108 17 48 354
Leading batter a year ago today—Herman, Brooklyn, .400.
AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Player—Club. G. A. B. R. H. P. E. Cochrane, Athl. 44 151 34 61 401 Simmons, Athl. 45 178 47 69 358 Hodapp, Cleve. 37 233 49 68 352 Rice, Wash. 38 221 53 69 352 Gehrig, N. Y. 54 198 46 70 377
Leading batter a year ago today—Fox, Philadelphia, .400.
Pittsfield Gets Kahn.
The Pittsfield Grays released the veteran infielder, Joe Rodriguez, and the young pitcher, Joe Greer, on the arrival of shortstop Arthur Kahn from the Boston Braves.

What's the Joke, John?

By Max Schmeling.

President John Heydler of the National League again slips it to us that there is no such thing as the lively ball. But would Mr. Heydler please explain these facts, in relation to his views on the mythical "rabbit ball"?

Six teams in the National League are batting more than .300 as clubs.

Sixty-one National League players are batting between .301 and .444.

Only 44 players (some of the pitchers not being counted) are batting under .300 in the National League.

The home run totals for 1930 surpass those of any previous year.

Surely the pitching has not become so rank or the batting so good as to account for such amazing increases as these.

Will Cheaper Hits

President Heydler insists that he has not heard anybody fear the home run as yet; and his straw vote shows that he prefers 5 to 6 rather than 2 to 1 scores.

But for how long?

History shows that the public soon tires of achievements that are easy to accomplish. Today that little truly so you believe in me. You think Sharkey would have won? All right. We find out. He does not have to wait a year as it stands in my contract. He gets his chance in September. May be by that time he will learn how to punch.

Something Mysterious.

HOWEVER, there is something mysterious in the situation. The American League uses exactly the same baseball as the National, from the same factory and from the same bin, except that the label is different.

But note the difference in the league figures. Instead of six clubs hitting over .300 in the American, there are only two. Instead of 61 hitters over .300, the American League has 47. In place of only 44 hitters under .300, the American League has 52. The American League's home run total (including Thursday's games) was only 251, as compared to 311.

What's the answer to that one?

One of two conclusions may be drawn. Either the American League pitching is better than the National's as a whole, or the American League batting is worse.

Considering that the American League representatives won 12 out of the last 12 world series games and that two of the series were won in four successive games by the American League, it is fair to assume that Mr. Heydler's view that there is no "rabbit" baseball may be partly right. "Rabbit pitching" may be what ails the league.

Cheer Up, Bill.

GOOSE GOBLIN is giving Manager Bill Killefer good cheer these days. He has been performing right up to Bill's estimate of his ability and may yet make the baseball world cease uttering over the trade for Manush and Crowder. "Goose" not only is hitting hard but he has shown that he has no lame wing.

Fans are wondering if Sam Breadon has pulled another "Alexander." In the deal for Grimes, Alex was acquired in mid-season when he was practically down and out. Incidentally Bill Killefer was the boy who helped steer Old Peter to the Cardinals when all others had given him up as a bad job. All Alex did was win two pennants for the Cardinals, to vindicate Killefer's judgment.

Grimes may pull something of the same stunt. He arrives at a time when the crickets that have been chirping for some time will be setting back into the trap. That should help the club pull a comeback. When equipped with full strength the Cardinals need take no team's dust—especially if Grimes comes through.

Incidentally, if the Goblins deal was the worst trade, the Alexander deal must have been the world's best. Alex cost the Cardinals Pitcher Hunter—can you remember him?

Count 'Em Out.

JOHNNT RIBKO and Paulino Lopez may now be counted out of the heavyweight "hope" picture. The fight at Detroit proves that neither is there a decision way. Ribko cannot hit and Paulino cannot box. Henceforth they are just two old trial horses. They're both too old to improve.

Into the discard with Ribko and Lopez. We can safely put Tuffy Griffiths (too small), Von Forst (too cautious), Young Stribling (too cautious) and George Godfrey (too black).

New material worth considering is extremely scarce—Ernie Schaaf, Camacho and one or two others. Camacho is the only real interesting possibility.

MAISON SCHOOL CHAMPIONS ARE AWARDED TROPHY

By James M. Gould.

Showing the same poles they had displayed during the season when stepping up to the plate to bat against opposing pitchers, members of the Madison School baseball team, public school champions, stepped up to the front of the platform before their parents and friends last night and were presented medals and the Post-Dispatch trophy by "Gaby" Street, Cardinal manager. The program was held at Madison School, 1115 South Seventh street.

It was the second time that a Madison team had been awarded the Post-Dispatch trophy in winning the Public School championship, the first baseball title having been won three years ago. Another championship would give Madison permanent possession of the trophy. One other school, Benton, also has two legs on the trophy.

Only One Defeat.
Madison went through the season with only one defeat, losing to Walnut Park, 3 to 1, in the first of a three-game title series. They won five games in a row to clinch their division title, and in the eliminations defeated Benton and Rock Springs, and then, after losing the first game of the title series to Walnut Park, came back to win the two remaining games and the championship.

Madison's record for the season: Madison 14, Kennard 1; Madison 14, Mullany 9; Madison 6, Gardenville 5; Madison 16, Grant 1; Madison 15, Oak Hill 5; Madison 11, Benton 1; Madison 17, Rock Springs 3; Walnut Park 2, Madison 1; Madison 3, Walnut Park 2; Madison 6, Walnut Park 3.

A significant feature of Madison's play for the season was that in most of their games the team came from behind to win, just as they clinched the championship by winning two games after losing the first.

"Gaby" Talks.
Before presenting the individual Post-Dispatch medals to the victorious players, Manager Street gave the boys a splendid talk on the value of clean living and playing the game square. He invited the players to be his guests at the game at Sportsman's Park on Monday.

Members of the championship team who received medals are: Walter Phillips, Archie Lansing, Ray Ferber, Elmer Goodner, Raymond Blankenship, James Platt, Jack Malone, Harry Baker, Capt. Louis Gott, Metro Markello, Emory Oros, Tony de Pillo, Charles Dunn. The boys were also given "M" sweaters from the Parent-Teacher Association by Principal P. J. Hickey and Harry H. Well, president of the association. Simeon Oliver, Eskimo pianist, rounded out the program with two concert numbers. The High School Orchestra also took part.

More than 350 parents and friends of the boys attended.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By the Associated Press.

Walter Berger, Braves—Took National League home run leadership with nineteenth and twentieth homers but Braves lost to Cubs, 7-3.

Kiki Cuyler and Woody English, Cubs—Hit home runs for second consecutive day.

Sam Gray, Browns—Held Red Sox to five hits as Browns won, 4-3.

George Earnshaw, Athletics—Handed Cleveland its first shutout of year, giving five hits and striking out eight as Athletics won, 8-0.

Larry Benton, Reds—Won first game as member of Reds, defeating Brooklyn, 2 to 1.

ity, the others being mere variations of the type of heavy weights that has clogged the field for the past two years.

If Camacho comes through in a big way, the heavyweight game may again attain popularity. If he flops, a long reign of mediocrity seems assured.

He May Be Tougher.

WHEN Sharkey and Schmeling meet again—and they will, of course, some time or other—Sharkey will have more difficulty than he did at Yankee Field. Max was fighting his first bout in a year and it was plain to everyone that what little boxing science he may have once had was lost entirely.

Max was not who he once was. His boxing knowledge when first he appeared in this country, Ribko is a easy sort of fighter and Schmeling stopped him. Ribko defeated Sharkey, it must be remembered. Schmeling, therefore must have gone to rust considerably during the year off. He will not be caught so badly out of time next time. Whether he can win or not is just the same old running match. In their fight as far as it went, the next meeting of the men ought to see Sharkey victor in six or seven rounds.

But you can't always tell by the first four rounds how the last eleven are going to be fought, especially when one fellow is game and the other temperamental.

Southpaws Harder to Hit Than Right Handers, Says Klein, N. L. Swat Leader

By James M. Gould.

Charles "Chuck" Klein, Port Wayne's most valuable present to the national game, is an authority on batting. He certainly has attained "expert" rating by his work for the past two seasons. At this very moment, he is leading the National League in hitting and is tied for second in home runs. To Klein, an unassuming chap not at all spoiled by his success, a fence is just part of a ball park to him. It has no especial significance in his work at bat.

"No, I don't think I cramp my batting style any by swinging for the fences. The short ones. In most ball parks, are in right field, and I am a natural right-fielder or right-hitter. I am sure that since I broke in with the Phils in August, 1928, I haven't altered my style. I always swung 'from Borough Hall,' as the baseball saying goes—that is, always swung from the end. For instance, I am sure that I bat in exactly the same form in Philadelphia or here in St. Louis, where right field is 'short,' as I do in Cincinnati, or Brooklyn, or Boston. At least, I am not conscious of the slightest change in my chance or the way I go after the ball."

"Speaking of St. Louis and Brooklyn," he continued, "there's plenty of work on the fielding side of the game. Here in St. Louis, you look right up at the high sky, while in Brooklyn, the right fielder is looking between two tiers of grand-stand seats. In neither park is the visibility good."

"Do you find much difference in your ability to hit southpaws, you being a left-handed batter?" he was asked.

"Sure, I do," was his answer, "and as left-handed who says I can't harder to hit a southpaw is just fooling. You have to watch the ball much more carefully, and I find that, while I get a fair share of hits off left-handers, they are not quite as frequent and not nearly so long."

The interviewer had seen Klein "break into" the majors against Greyhound Results, Entries

At Kingshighway.

At Kingsburyway.		At Madison.
ENTRIES.
First Race—Three-sixteenths mile:	Cesar Boy	First Race—One-fourth mile:	Mauero
Bud's Son	Goodwill	My Cobler	Dolly Breeze
Good Weather	Goodwill	Reddy's Pride	Lorrid A
Tatum	Traffic Concern	Reddy's Creek	Reddy's Creek
Nemo	Also eligible:	Miss Repeat	Liddy Buggy
Second Race—Three-sixteenths mile:	Nemo	Shenandoah	Ornament
Black Hill	Miss Mary Ward	Arbush Dillon	Irish Cure
Black Hill	Regulator	Wash. Brier	Red Mammoth
Black Hill	Also eligible:	Signal Tom	Mount
Black Hill	Black Hill	Also eligible:	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill
Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill	Black Hill

Approach 2 Enabled at Hoylake

Approach 2 Enabled at Hoylake
This story is by far the hardest in the administration of the championship to realize just when it comes to being thorough and in this particular instance, when it comes to being thorough.

No Sour Grapes in England Over Jones' Victory in Open
LONDON, June 21.—There were no reservations in the admiration bestowed today by the British press upon Bobby Jones, victor in yesterday's British open golf tournament finals. Nor was there any expression of sour grapes in the golfing vineyard over his success at the expense of British players.

"The greatest of all living golfers," "the greatest golfing genius of all time," were among the encomiums showered upon the victor today, while one writer suggested humorously that he be conceded both amateur and open championships for life and automatically presented two cups yearly.

"This would restore the competitive spirit to golf," he said.

and then I heard that MacDonald Smith who needed 59 to tie, had gone out in 34. An hour and a half between the time that I finished and the time when I knew I had won was almost as uncomfortable as the time spent on the golf course trying to keep the ball out of the bunkers.

No one of ordinary human intelligence can fail to give the major part of credit to pure, undiluted luck when the championship comes his way. I cannot and without saying a word about the galleries at Hoylake and the exemplary manner in which they were handled by the club stewards.

Athletic Coaches Signed.
The Associated Press.
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., June 21.—Jefford R. (Bur) Harper of Champaignville, Ill., University of Illinois basketball and track star, today was engaged as a member of the athletic coaching staff at Stiers High, Dayton, O.

Dusek to Meet Hagen.
Rudy Dusek of Little Rock, yesterday agreed to meet George Hagen of Brooklyn, in a match on Wednesday night's wrestling card at the outdoor Battery A arena. The bout is scheduled to go 45 minutes.

Stirling Uses Injured Left Hand to Knock Out Von Porat in Two Minutes, 50 Seconds
By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 21.—The angular figure of Otto Von Porat, Norway's heavyweight contribution, today was out of the championship scheme—propelled there by the left fist of William Stirling of Georgia, U. S. A.

Two minutes and 50 seconds after they crawled into the ring at the Chicago Stadium last night, Von Porat, the paralytic, was knocked out by the left hand of the same left hand that caused Stirling to ask postponement of the battle.

The ex-schoolboy from Macon, Ga., fought in a fashion that amazed a throng of around 21,000 persons, carried Von Porat off his feet from the start. None of the hitting and mauling that has characterized previous Stirling battles were on display. Stirling came out using everything and it was a thoroughly bewildered Von Porat who launched a right swing at Stirling's jaw, then ran into a left hook that dropped him like a rock.

Von Porat's head struck the canvas with a thud, and what he tried to accomplish was finished when his head struck the floor. Stirling was all over Otto from the start. His left hand was given him an idea of what Stirling was like a rock.

Sport Salad

Ode to Emperor Jones.
The British open went to Jones Mac Smith with tied with Diego! Once more the British Lion roars. In triumph screams the Eagle. America is proud of Bob. And another him with flowers. We know when he is on the job. The bacon will be ours.

When landing on his native shore With trophies of the tourney. We'll have a rousing welcome for That brilliant young attorney.

Me and You Both, Alex.
Bobby Jones is the second to win the British amateur open the same year. He now has a general idea of how Alexander felt when he ran out of words.

While we expected Bobby to bring home the bacon, we were not looking for a double portion. That golf is still a typical Scotch game was indicated by the close finish.

Sherman may have put Georgia on the map by marching through it, but it remained for Bobby Jones to really make the old Commonwealth famous. The baker cooked the dough but the woodchopper couldn't split the wood.

See where Marshall Field's Jacobson won the Windsor Castle Stakes at Ascot, the event carried 1900 pounds with extras. This is picking up weight!

This is one for the big book and puts Marshall Field one up on Sears Roebuck.

The trade-ins all had a big day Thursday, George Gollin, Gen. Crowder, Helme Manush and Whelanman shivers coming through in major league fashion.

Burt Shotton refuses to count the Phillips out of the race until the mathematical chance has dwindled down to a Chinaman's hazard.

And he's absolutely right. Before the idea of October, if any, the Phillips may have turned into dark horses.

You never can tell. The Fourth of July might see the Braves starting out on another "1914."

While we wouldn't be surprised to see the Browns come out on top in the American League, we might rub our eyes and say, "What's that!"

See where Jack Sharkey wants to fight Schmeling on a guarantee. That is, he'll guarantee not to foul him.

Muskoogee 17, Fort Smith 9.
MUSKOGEE, Ok., June 21.—Muskoogee sluggers last night blasted Koch, Fort Smith hurler, for 21 hits and 17 runs to win a game which was hailed for several minutes while police ejected Runt Marr, Fort Smith skipper, from the park following an argument with Umpire Davis. The score was 17 to 9.

Fairmount Charts

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
COLLINSVILLE, Ill., June 21.—Following are the results of today's Fairmount races:

First Race—Five furlongs.	Time: 1:00.30.
1. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	2. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
3. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	4. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

Weather clear; track fast.

First Race—Five furlongs.	Time: 1:00.30.
1. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	2. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
3. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	4. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

Weather clear; track fast.

First Race—Five furlongs.	Time: 1:00.30.
1. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	2. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
3. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	4. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

Weather clear; track fast.

First Race—Five furlongs.	Time: 1:00.30.
1. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	2. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
3. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	4. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

Weather clear; track fast.

First Race—Five furlongs.	Time: 1:00.30.
1. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	2. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
3. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	4. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

Weather clear; track fast.

First Race—Five furlongs.	Time: 1:00.30.
1. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	2. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
3. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	4. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

Weather clear; track fast.

First Race—Five furlongs.	Time: 1:00.30.
1. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	2. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
3. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	4. St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

Reveille Boy Will Train on LATONIA TRACK

Reveille Boy Will Train on LATONIA TRACK
By the Associated Press.
LATONIA, Ky., June 21.—Reveille Boy, long-shot winner of the $50,000 American Derby at Washington Park today was ready to join other eligible for the Latonia Derby in prepping for the $25,000 stake to be opened day Saturday, June 22, the opening day of the Latonia meeting.

Reveille arrived here in fine condition yesterday after a 16-hour trip from Washington Park, Ill., in a van. His owner, J. A. Best, former Memphis grocer, rode behind the truck, accompanied by John Paul, his trainer, and two handlers.

Mike Hall, R. M. Eastman's noted gelding, came to Kentucky in the same van with Reveille Boy, and was sent on to St. P. Heald's Beaumont farm at Lexington, where he will rest for a while.

Johnny Best is certain that his surprise 3-year-old will capture the Latonia Derby and entitle him to the $25,000 stake.

He scoffs at the idea that Reveille Boy has run a mile and a half, the Latonia Derby distance, and Gallant Fox has in the Belmont Stakes.

No word has been received by track officials here concerning the possibility that Gallant Fox, winner of the Preakness, Kentucky Derby and the Belmont, will run in the Latonia Derby. They have been encouraged, however, by reports that the Woodward colt will run in the American classic at Arlington.

July 12, and are hopeful that his owner will send him to Illinois via Kentucky with a stop-off at Latonia to permit an attempt on the part of the champion to capture the $25,000 extra that goes to the winner of both the Kentucky and Latonia derbies.

SPRINTER SAYS WORK COMES BEFORE PLAY; WILL NOT ENTER MEET
By the Associated Press.
SIDNEY, Australia, June 21.—"My work comes before play, my career takes precedence of the track," says Jimmy Carleton, the Australian champion sprinter, who declined to represent Australia at the British Empire Games in Canada.

Carleton, holder of the Australian 100-yard record (9.4 seconds) and 220-yard record (21.3 seconds), says that he has noticed that two members of the last Australian Olympic team are unemployed.

It would be an honor to represent my country in Canada," he says, "but if I stick to my work instead of the clinders I am more likely to be a good citizen and a successful man."

OKLAHOMA CITY WINS FROM OMAHA, 6 TO 4
By the Associated Press.
OMAHA, Neb., June 21.—Oklahoma City took the series final from Omaha last night, 6 to 4. Ken Graf of the Indians batted Smithson and Carlsen of the Packers, each being hit for three runs in the second inning and lasted to win. The Indians scored the winning run in the seventh inning on Guppy's single, an infield out and Kroner's one-base blow. Omaha's lead in the ninth was halted by Graf after one had been batted across.

Pirates Sell Infielder.
By the Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 21.—The Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday sold pitcher Charlie Hall to the St. Louis Cardinals for $100,000.

Bagshaw Gets Job.
By the Associated Press.
OLYMPIA, Wash., June 21.—Enoch Bagshaw, University of Washington football coach for nine years, is supervising transportation in the Department of Public Works here.

Rejoins Old Coach.
By the Associated Press.
VANCOUVER, B. C., June 21.—Percy Williams of Vancouver, B. C. Olympia Games sprint champion, has joined again with his old coach Bob Granger.

Johnstown Signs Mallard.
By the Associated Press.
Mallard of Mercer University has been signed by Johnstown of the Middle Atlantic League.

RACING ENTRIES

At Fairmount.	At Washington Park.
First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.	First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30	St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Aqueduct.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Thistledown.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

Racing Selections

At Fairmount.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

At Fairmount.

First race, 2:00, claiming, 3-year-olds.
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30
St. Louis (J. H. Jones) 1:00.30

GREYHOUND RACING

"THE SPORT OF QUEENS"

10-RACES NIGHTLY-10

—Excepting Sunday—

FEATURING WORLD'S FASTEST GREYHOUNDS

POST TIME TONIGHT 7:45

Other Nights 8 O'Clock

NO MINORS ADMITTED

Busses, Street Cars and Service Cars Direct from Eads Bridge to Track

ILLINOIS STATE HIGHWAY NUMBER ELEVEN

MADISON KENNEL CLUB

Associated with International Greyhound Racing Association

$142,000,000 BILL FOR RIVER WORK PASSED IN SENATE

Vandenberg of Michigan Only One to Oppose It—Says Ultimate Amount Will Be $335,000,000.

$48,000,000 FOR MISSOURI ALLOWED

$98,000,000 for 9-Foot Channel in Mississippi Appropriated—Harbor Projects Included.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, June 21.—With-out a record vote, the Senate yesterday approved the House Rivers and Harbors bill authorizing waterway developments throughout the country with a Federal expenditure estimated by the War Department at more than $142,000,000.

The only dissenting vote came from Senator Vandenberg (Rep., Mich.), who asserted the measure contained "ultimate commitments of $335,000,000 to $340,000,000."

"It ought to be clearly understood by the country," Vandenberg declared in the final moments of debate, "that there is no possibility for all the things approved in this measure to be done immediately. Many of the projects authorized are undertaken without the final approval of the army engineers."

Senator Johnson (Rep., Cal.), estimates the total appropriations at $122,000,000. The War Department estimates the House bill carries authorizations of $117,500,000 and that the Senate Commerce Committee added $24,500,000 to it.

The Senate approved all the committee additions and added several other items during the final consideration.

President Hoover has not made known his attitude toward the measure, the first major expansion program for waterway improvements in more than three years. It has been said that he desired to keep the total within $60,000,000, but advocates are confident that he will approve it.

The bill permits a $98,000,000 project for a nine-foot channel for the Upper Mississippi River; a $18,000,000 project for the Upper Missouri, authorizing $15,000,000 for a six-foot channel from Kansas City to Sioux City, and a $75,000,000 project for the Tennessee River, with $5,000,000 expenditure for a nine-foot channel from the mouth to Knoxville River.

Fast harbor and flood control projects in all sections also are authorized.

SECOND CONVICTION IN HOLDUP OF INDIANA BANK FOR $2000
By the Associated Press. JASPER, Ind., June 21.—Monte Christ of Decatur, Ill., last night was convicted of participating in the robbery of the German-American Bank here March 10. Clint Brooks, Mattoon, Ill., was convicted earlier this week. Two thousand dollars was obtained in the robbery.

The State based its case against both men principally on identifications by Jasper residents. William F. Beckman, the cashier, identified Christ through the missing thumb and finger on his right hand.

THE COLISEUM POOL
Washington Jefferson-Levee
THE WORLD'S BIGGEST, FINEST AND MOST SANITARY POOL—SALT WATER
Expert Swimming Instruction

EXCURSION STEAMERS
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Excursion Steamer
J.S. AND ST. PAUL
DAILY 9:30 AM
NIGHTLY 8:45 PM
WHARF AT FOOT OF WASHINGTON AVE.

Reports Progress in Cancer Study

DR. CHARLES F. GESCHICKTER.

BALTIMORE scientist, who has announced the discovery of a cancer stain, far better than any yet devised, though still not the ultimate stain being sought. Experts are searching for a stain, which, when introduced to the body, will color only the cancer cells and so give a positive and unmistakable diagnosis.

FINED $500 IN GIRL'S DEATH ON AUTO RIDE

Roy Seccrest Convicted of Manslaughter at Boonville, Mo.—Will Appeal.

By the Associated Press.

BOONVILLE, Mo., June 21.—A jury in Cooper County Circuit Court here yesterday returned a verdict of manslaughter against Roy Seccrest, charged with the murder of Miss Elyda Anderson, Jefferson City Statehouse employee, while on an automobile ride, and fixed his punishment at $500 fine.

Seccrest testified that Miss Anderson fell from his car while they were driving. He admitted, however, that he had threatened her because she had broken a date with him.

Defense counsel asked 10 days time in which to file a motion for new trial, and issued a statement which said, "we plan to appeal this case for absolute vindication."

The jury in the first trial was unable to agree, the vote being 10 to 2 for acquittal. Judge Westover, who conducted the trial here for the second time before capacity courtroom crowds, instructed the jury as to possible sentences. "The defendant," he told the jury, "can be found not guilty and dismissed or he can be found guilty in one of three different degrees, first-degree murder, second-degree murder or manslaughter."

SENATE CONFIRMS MACNIDER AS U. S. MINISTER TO CANADA

Brookhart Assails Him as Leader of "Drunkens Revels" at Legion Conventions.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Senator MacNider of Iowa was confirmed by the Senate yesterday as Minister to Canada after Sen. Brookhart (Rep., Iowa), had described him as the leader of "drunken revels" at American Legion conventions and Senator Stock (Dem., Iowa), had quickly denied the charge.

Brookhart, in voicing his personal objections to his Iowa Republican political foe, said:

"I have seen MacNider leading these revels. I know he is to blame for that more than any man in the whole American Legion."

Jumping to his feet, Stock replied that Brookhart "does not know what he is talking about."

He said MacNider had been a "rector" since he entered public life as an Assistant Secretary of War four years ago. He called on the Senate to confirm him.

The Senate listened attentively to the airing of the old feud between Brookhart and MacNider and when Stock had concluded did not even take a record vote. There was a chorus of "ayes" and the Iowa was confirmed.

Steel Mill Officer Slain.

PUEBLO, Colo., June 21.—Mervin Calhoun, a superintendent at the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co.'s steel mills here, was found shot to death near his home early today. Police think Calhoun was slain by a disgruntled employee.

So desperate is their plight, the editor said, that they are seeking to be classed as operators of public utilities.

Breen said Philadelphia and Chicago are the only large cities in which the cab companies make an adequate profit, despite the fact that in New York taxicab-riders spend $1.91 for every $1 spent on the subway, elevated railroad, buses and street cars combined.

FIRE IN ITALIAN KING'S SUITE

Defective Wiring Causes Blaze in Palace at Naples.

By the Associated Press. NAPLES, Italy, June 21.—Fire caused by defective electrical wiring caused some damage to the king's suite on the first floor of the royal palace here today. It spread to the second floor before it was extinguished.

Cher women, arriving early, found the entire royal apartment filled with smoke and put in a general alarm. The fire seemed to have started during the night in the elevator shaft.

SCHOOL BOARD VOTES TO LEASE ITS BUILDING

Trust Company to Pay Rental on $1,250,000 and Enlarge Structure.

The proposal of the Holbrook-Blackwelder Real Estate Trust Co. to lease the headquarters building of the Board of Education, at the northwest corner of Ninth and Locust streets, for 99 years, was approved by the board yesterday. A lease will be executed when the company complies with a set of conditions.

With three members absent, the board voted 7 to 2 for approval of the deal. Mrs. Elias Michael and Mrs. E. R. Kroeger voted against it, they explained, not because they were opposed to the idea but because they felt there was insufficient information on the details.

Those voting for the transaction were President Blumeyer, Emil Barth, Howard G. Cook, Myrt A. Rollins, Dr. D. C. Todd, John C. Tobin and Ben Wiedle.

One change was made in the proposal as heretofore considered. This was to require the lessee to erect a new building, costing at least $1,000,000, on the 112,127-foot site. Walter J. Holbrook, head of the real estate company, had said this was acceptable.

Robert G. Burkham, attorney for the board, gave his opinion yesterday that the property would continue to be exempt from taxes under the lease. The board owns the land and building. If the exemption is upheld in the courts, in litigation which is likely to be brought, the lessee will pay to the board, as added remuneration, the full equivalent of State, city and school taxes on the property.

The board will retain this money. President Blumeyer said final approval would be given the lease if the lessee forms a corporation to handle the property, succeeds as contemplated in financing the deal, obtains approval from the board of plans for adding three floors to the present seven-story structure, deposits $458,000 in escrow to pay for the addition and alterations, and post a bond to assure completion of these changes.

The lease will be on a valuation of $1,250,000, which real estate men have said is favorable to the board. Rental for the first 15 years will be $62,500 a year, or 5 per cent on the valuation, and every 15 years the annual rate will be increased by $500, with a change of $2,500 a year for the last nine years. Lessee is to install four new passenger elevators and freight elevator, and to alter the first six stories and the basement for occupancy by Garland's, a women's apparel shop.

Instead of the fifth, sixth and seventh floors, which it now uses, the Board of Education will occupy the seventh, eighth and ninth stories. Holbrook plans to lease the top floor to certain insurance companies. The board will pay the building lessee $27,922 a year rent for its new space and the deal provides that temporary quarters shall be furnished the board while the change is being made.

CHINATOWN IN NEWARK RAIDED

Police and Firemen Break Down Doors With Axes.

NEWARK, N. J., June 21.—Armed with axes and sledge hammers, police and firemen conducted a raid on Newark's Chinatown early today, battering their way into 14 opium dens, arresting 75 Chinese and seizing narcotics valued at $20,000.

It was one of the most successful raids in Newark's Chinatown, which has the reputation in the underworld of being the cache for narcotics throughout the Eastern United States.

AMUSEMENTS

MUNICIPAL OPERA
Municipal Opera House, Grand Opera House, and Sunday Night at 8:15. LAST 2 TIMES GOOD SEATS FOR BOTH NIGHTS.

DESERT SONG
Grand Star Club—Chorus of 54. Produced under Personal Supervision of Supervisors.

NEW MOON
NEXT WEEK. "NEW MOON" SEATS NOW. Tickets 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. Box Seats $2.00. Reserved Seats $3.00. Arcade 4500. Ticket Office in Forest Park open 7 to 9 p.m. Telephone TOWN 1224.

BASEBALL TODAY
Sportmen's Park. CARDINALS vs. PHILADELPHIA. Game Starts at 3 O'Clock.

GIRLS' DAY TODAY
Philadelphia News—2 Games. Tickets for all games at Arcade Bldg., Rembrandt Bldg.

AMUSEMENTS

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

MEXICAN PRODUCERS URGED TO BOYCOTT U. S.

Foreign Office Advises Them to Seek New Markets Due to New Tariff.

By the Associated Press. MEXICO CITY, June 21.—The consular department of the Foreign Office today in a published statement advised Mexican producers, especially growers of vegetables and cattle breeders, to look for new fields for exports. It was said the new United States tariff laws would, in all probability, practically close that country as a market.

The statement suggested that Canada, Cuba and Central America would make good markets and recommended that business interests promote the canning and packing industries in Mexico so as to allow a larger home consumption of Mexican products.

Excelsior, leading Mexico City daily newspaper, in an editorial described President Hoover's signature of the tariff measure and Soviet Russia's abolition of private property as the two most sensational events in the world since the great war. Both were said to be equivalent declarations of war against the rest of the world.

Excelsior said: "Pseudo-Marxism in Russia, as opposed to the bourgeois regimes of the rest of the world, and American imperialism as opposed to world industrialism in other countries, present the strange spectacle of belatedism and imperialism going hand in hand."

DAUGHTER OF CONGRESSMAN BANKHEAD SEEKS ANNULMENT

By the Associated Press. RENO, Nev., June 21.—Preliminary to a marriage, announcement by Mrs. Eugenia Bankhead Hoyt Butt, three married and twice divorced daughter of Congressman William R. Bankhead of Alabama, are being prepared here.

An appearance and waiver on behalf of William Lawson Butts, soda fountain employe who married the Congressman's daughter several months ago after she had divorced Morton M. Hoyt, is to be filed in Superior Court. The document placed Butt within the jurisdiction of the court and provides for his default to Mrs. Butt's proceedings.

Butt signed the waiver in Honolulu, where his bride left him. Upon learning his divorce from his first wife had not been made final, Mrs. Butt previously announced she would make this allegation in her annulment suit.

The former Miss Bankhead was twice married to Hoyt, son of a former Solicitor-General of the United States.

AMUSEMENTS

MUNICIPAL OPERA
Municipal Opera House, Grand Opera House, and Sunday Night at 8:15. LAST 2 TIMES GOOD SEATS FOR BOTH NIGHTS.

DESERT SONG
Grand Star Club—Chorus of 54. Produced under Personal Supervision of Supervisors.

NEW MOON
NEXT WEEK. "NEW MOON" SEATS NOW. Tickets 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. Box Seats $2.00. Reserved Seats $3.00. Arcade 4500. Ticket Office in Forest Park open 7 to 9 p.m. Telephone TOWN 1224.

BASEBALL TODAY
Sportmen's Park. CARDINALS vs. PHILADELPHIA. Game Starts at 3 O'Clock.

GIRLS' DAY TODAY
Philadelphia News—2 Games. Tickets for all games at Arcade Bldg., Rembrandt Bldg.

AMUSEMENTS

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

SHUBERT
Twice Daily 2:15-8:15

TROLLEY COMPANY URGED TO RESTORE MARCUS AV. SERVICE

300 Residents of District Petition for Street Car or Bus Line.

A petition urging the Public Service Co. to re-establish transportation service either by bus or street car line on Marcus avenue between Spaulding and Easton avenues was signed by about 300 residents of the Marcus-Easton district who held a meeting at Liberty Hall, Marcus and Easton avenues, last night. When street car service was discontinued several months ago, it was pointed out, the Public Service Co. agreed to replace it with a bus line. This the petition declares, the company has failed to do.

A business men's association representing the district also was organized at the meeting. Z. L. Glenn was elected president; Artie A. Apple, vice president; Saul L. Nyman, secretary, and William J. O'Toole, treasurer.

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

Popular Comics
News Photographs

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH DAILY MAGAZINE

Fiction—Radio News and Features of Popular Interest

SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1930.

SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1930. PAGE 10

ADMIRAL BYRD'S
WELCOME IN
NEW YORK

The sturdy ship, City of New York, which carried the South Pole expedition down to the ice barrier, in Antarctica, and back, escorted by other craft into the harbor. —Associated Press photo.

Admiral Byrd arriving at the City Hall after a journey up Broadway through showers of paper and ticker tape and the acclaim of onlookers. —Associated Press photo.

The best greeting of all—Admiral Byrd's mother standing beside her son on the welcoming boat which met the City of New York.

Fireboats joined in the celebration in the harbor, sending up streams of water, like slender spray from fountains, as their tribute to Admiral Byrd. —Associated Press photo.

The parade passing up lower Broadway, with the sidewalks densely packed with cheering spectators welcoming home the only man who has made airplane trips over both the North and South Poles. —Associated Press

A new sword for the Admiral—presented by the people of Virginia. Byrd's native State, from the hands of Miss Sue Pollard, daughter of the Governor.

A salute for the Mayor and the people of New York. Admiral Byrd on the steps of City Hall.

Companions on the trip to Antarctica. Left to right: Tom Mulroy, chief engineer; Admiral Byrd, Dean Smith, pilot; Harold Juna, pilot; and Lloyd Berkner, radio operator. —Associated Press photo.

The family of the youthful Admiral in the parade—mother, wife and children. —Associated Press photo.

furnishing store, as a man who held him up with a revolver, seized $9.35. According to police, Combs confessed to robbing cab drivers.

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS

MAIE

Summer Prices
TODAY

res er

25¢

Now Showing

"One Romantic Night"

LILLIAN GISH
ROD LA ROQUE
CONRAD NAGEL
MARIE DRESSLER

Romance, Action, Intrigue and Love

LAUREL—HARDY

"HAYWIRE"
METROTONE

WHOOPEE MIDNITE
FROLIC TONIGHT
COMPLETE STAGE AND SCREEN SHOW
SURPRISE FEATURE | ALL SEATS 50c

For Movietone Musical Hit
"NOT DAMAGED"

Lois Moran Robert Ames Walter Byron

SNAPPY STAGE SHOW!
FRANKIE JENKS

INTRODUCES FANCHON & MARCO'S
"GYP, GYP, GYPSY"

FEATURING
CHAZ CHASE
INTERNATIONAL UNIQUE COMIC

5000 COOL SEATS
THE BIGGEST SHOW IN ST. LOUIS
FOX

"RIO RITA" IN RIOTOUS NEW HIT
THE CUCKOOS

Scene—99 Minutes of Laughter
BERT in "REDEMPTION" Famous Talent
ELEANOR BOARDMAN. Cooling System

PLAY
INDEX

Michigan Ruth Chatterton in "The
and Son." Also "The Cyclone Cavalier."

NEW SHENANDOAH
Cochran, System, "The
and Son." Also "The Cyclone Cavalier."

NEW WHITE WAY
All-Talking, with CONRAD NAGEL, "The SECOND WIFE."

Overland
Overland, Mo.,
"The Cyclone Cavalier."

PALE
Two Talk Pictures:
"The Cyclone Cavalier."

PAULINE
Summer Admission Pro
Wm. Haines in "The Sold No." Radio Opera

QUEERS AIRDOOME
"Roadhouse Night" with Chas. Rogers and "The Cyclone Cavalier."

Red Wing
Wm. Boyd in "The Cyclone Cavalier."

OBIN
Chas. Morris in "The Cyclone Cavalier."

Virginia
Duchie Program
"The Cyclone Cavalier."

Wellston
Chas. Morris in "The Cyclone Cavalier."

APRIL ESCAPADE

What Happened to a Girl Who Posed as a Rich Man's Wife

—By—KATHLEEN NORRIS

CHAPTER XXXVII

A GAIN for a moment nobody spoke in the orderly kitchen, with its wicker, shabby table cloth and its brushed linoleum that was worn into brown circles. The clock ticked and the hot water faucet dropped an occasional pearl upon the dry zinc surface of the sink. Only one lamp was lighted, the greenish light on the table, where the children did their evening lessons; the drop light over the sink was dark.

"Mother, we've been in—sort of—trouble, the last few days," Martin then began, haltingly. "And perhaps we ought to tell you about it."

"I couldn't go out," he added, as in sheer stupefaction Mrs. O'Hara was still, and none of the others spoke. "So I had to ask Mr. Christopher Steynes to come here. Mr. Christopher Steynes to come here," Martin repeated, with a glance at him. "I thought you'd be at Uncle Robert's until at least eleven."

"Your Uncle Robert is very bad, and I promised I'd get into a wash dress and go back and set with him," Mrs. O'Hara said automatically, her mind not upon her words, her anxious eyes upon her children.

"I don't know why you had to keep anything from me, Mart," she added, her look moving from one member of the silent, self-conscious circle to another.

"In this case, Mrs. O'Hara," Cass said, "there was no reason why you should ever have been bothered by it."

Mary Kate's mother gave him a glance of superb scorn, a look expressing all the resentment of the patient, proud woman whose private affairs are indecently and unfairly made public. Then she turned her expectant eyes toward Martin again.

"Tell me what on earth is going on, Mart."

"Mother—" Mary Kate began impulsively. But her mother stopped her.

"Leave your brother talk," she commanded. Mary Kate subsided into silence, her whole slender figure drooping, as she sat at the kitchen table, her softly tumbled copper hair resting on her hand.

"Ma," Martin began, "this Mr. Steynes here is a friend of Mr. Rountree's, and they asked me, Mary Kate, last week, if she would pretend for two days to be married to Mr. Steynes."

A sharply horrified look at her daughter was Mrs. O'Hara's reception of this. Chris essayed to speak.

"The reason being—" he was beginning, when Mrs. O'Hara silenced him as she had her daughter.

"Just a moment, please."

"The reason was," Martin resumed, accepting Chris' opening, "that some woman was pursuing him and hoped he'd ask her to marry him. She had followed him out from New York."

"You didn't get yourself mixed up in that sort of thing," the mother asked, with a stern and incredulous look at Mary Kate.

"There was to be money in it," Martin pursued ruthlessly.

"Between us and all harm," Mrs. O'Hara whispered.

"Look here, Mr. O'Hara, you're giving your mother an entirely false idea of the whole thing," Chris interrupted impulsively.

"I'll take it that my son gives it, if you please," Mrs. O'Hara told him. And again Christopher fell silent.

"Mary Kate wanted the money for my German trip," Mart conceded, before continuing.

"Mart," his mother pleaded, "don't tell me she knew no better than that!"

"Well, anyway," Martin went on, "she and Mr. Steynes bought clothes, and she went down there to Burlingame—she didn't go to Sacramento at all."

"Molly—" her mother questioned, heartbreak in her voice. Mary Kate made no answer; she did not raise her head.

"She told us she was going to Sacramento," Martin pursued, "but she went to Burlingame, and when she went to dinner at Mr. Rountree's she went with Mr. Steynes, here, and was introduced as his wife."

"Don't say such things, Mart!" Mrs. O'Hara rebuked him.

"It's true. I drove the doctor home that night," the boy said. "And I saw her. His place is just opposite the Rountree place, and I was starting for home when I saw her come out on a sort of terrace there, all dressed up—oh, my God!"

He put his hand over his eyes. There was absolute silence in the kitchen, except that Mrs. O'Hara drew her breath with a sort of whimpering sound.

"I went kind of crazy, I guess," Martin said. "I started to come back to the city, like I always do, leaving the doctor's car down there, and all of a sudden something seemed to burst inside my head—"

"Oh, blessed and merciful Lord—" Mrs. O'Hara whispered. Her eyes were shut.

"I came in here round midnight, or later," Martin said. "You called out to me, remember? Anyway, I stayed in my room upstairs until I thought you were asleep, and then

LON CHANEY THE MAN OF A THOUSAND FACES

This is the twenty-seventh article in the series on the Hollywood picture stars, written by the Motion Picture Critic of the Post-Dispatch.

By H. H. NIEMEYER (Nie)

"BAH! I'm all right—lemme alone!" For years this has been Lon Chaney's answer to anyone suggesting that one of his disguises might be hurting him, that having arms or legs trussed up, an eye bleached out with colloid or any of those little things might be bad for him.

But Chaney said it once too often. He paid the penalty with a good, long stay in the hospital with pneumonia, when he insisted that snow couldn't hurt a man riding through it in a locomotive, with windows removed for the camera. It is Chaney's utter disregard for physical discomfort, for possible consequences of too strenuous disguises, that has made him the reigning character actor of the screen. He literally throws himself into the role, until he actually hypnotizes himself into feeling that he is the character he's playing.

One of his cruelest roles, "The Penalty," left him with an injury from the never-recovered. Another sent him to the hospital with pneumonia and subsequent complications that have left him still an invalid. The price of fame, at least in Chaney's case, has not been a cheap one.

THE star is one of the oddest mixtures of practicality and sentimentality on the screen. He knows every trick of makeup, of stagecraft, of effects and of camera angles. He can engineer or lay out a set, and his years on the stage as stage manager, actor, and, in fact, every job there is in a theater, have given him an enormous fund of practical knowledge that he is incessantly using. He doesn't act like an actor. His first viewpoint is always the practical villains is back in that good old era of Tony Pastor, you know."

"I just wanted to see how little

CHANAY's roles are as diversified as are his tricks of disguise. The ancient Chinaman in "Mr. Wu," the old woman in "The Unholy Three," his portrayal of "Fagin" in "Oliver Twist," his picture of the tough Marine Sergeant in "Tell It to the Marines," his sinister legless villain in "The Penalty," his armless wonder role in "The Unknown," and his part of the Dracula-like vampire in "London After Midnight," are all characters different as night is from day.

His old engineer in "Thunder," the picture that sent him to the hospital, was proclaimed by railroad men as the most remarkable impersonation of an engineer ever seen on stage or screen. Marines really look—by always using some makeup in a role. I wanted to do the same with my voice—use several disguises so the people could wonder a little as to what my actual voice is. It's just a matter of showmanship, I think. The public adores anything with mystery in it, and, after all, what I have principally to sell 'em is mystery, don't you think?"

ABOUT the studies Chaney is immensely popular. Probably nobody, from stars to prop boy, ever calls him "Mr. Chaney," but always "Lon." He puts in eight hours of work on the "lot," and when he's through he won't even talk pictures. He hates to talk shop and loves to talk about trout fishing, which is his principal hobby. He also makes a hobby of his amateur movie camera and is exactly like to be considered "hard-boiled"—which he isn't. When Peggy Wood caught him replacing some baby birds in a nest they'd fallen out of at the studio he acted like a bashful schoolboy, and pleaded with her not to tell the gang about it, as he'd be kidded to death. He is always doing some kindness or other, at the same time frantically endeavoring to keep it a secret. He hates to be thanked for anything. "Gwan—his nothing," is his usual retort.

He likes his work—so much so that when he's not actually before the camera he's helping set scenery, rehearse other players, or making up extras. His work is his life.

The next article on the stars of the motion picture world will tell of Bebe Daniels. It will appear on these pages Wednesday.

hall his Sergeant in the marine picture as his life itself. It's all because, as Chaney explains, "a part you have to study it until you can think like the character."

For a year the fans waited for him to make a talkie. He held out steadfastly, and then his illness intervened. He wasn't sure the recording apparatus was accurate enough to reproduce real personality in a voice. And without that, he insisted, really accurate acting couldn't be screened.

"When I heard Lawrence Tibbett in 'The Rogues Song,' and saw every scintilla of his remarkable personality ever the apparatus," says Chaney, "I knew the thing had been done. And that's why I wanted to do 'The Unholy Three' first. It has five voices to be used. You see, I have always tried to keep up a little mystery about how to accept inferior workmanship, or fabric made for selling rather than wearing, just because she doesn't pay a week's salary for each item of her wardrobe. None of the dresses we're mentioning ought to cost over $25 and some quite a bit less. But every one of them should trace its descent from a much more expensive model, and each ought to be of good material, so well made that it won't lose its smartness of line in cleaning.

"Cottons, linens and shantung make delightful little country suits, and such a suit in a dark color can also be worn in town. It is especially noteworthy that this year's shantung in black and dark blue may be found in guaranteed-to-wash versions that are cool, inexpensive and less demanding in the matter of care than almost anything else on the market."

This season, fabric hats are smart both for town and country wear, and they're so much easier to pack and clean and so much more adaptable to varying occasions that every business girl will give them serious thought.

"The shoe made this year favors the single pump, which is a good thing for those of us who can't afford for many pairs as we'd like. Such a shoe, with a heel neither too high nor too slender should be in white linen—the easiest shoe in the world to clean, and one that may be worn for every country occasion except active sport. Even in formal evening dresses in light colors may dance accompanied by these new white linen shoes."

"Evening dresses in plain colors were never lovelier—turquoise blue, dusty pink, greens that are brilliant or soft. They can all be washed in material guaranteed to wash. Black is the choice for a wrap to go with all the light and bright colors."

A few drops of vanilla will improve cocoa.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Chaney in "The Road to Mandalay." His left eye was bleached with a powerful drug for this role.

Lon Chaney in "Outside the Law," one of his early pictures.

one. And because he's had hard knocks all his life he expects and seems to welcome them. And still he can in a flash absorb the most delicate sentimental situation, and portray it with the deft artistry that for years has amazed his fans.

Perhaps it is partly because his parents were deaf mutes. In the most intimate relationship, that of child and parents, his only mode of expression was that of pantomime.

Today they say Chaney has the most expressive hands in the world. In his early theatrical days he worked with small troupes, where he was able to actually use five separate voices. It was just harking back to his old stage days.

That is why, in his first talking picture, "The Unholy Three," he was able to actually use five separate voices. It was just harking back to his old stage days.

"THERE was a lot of fun in those old days—but go!" What a lot of work, remarked Chaney. "I remember one job I had where I played the comedian of a light opera, was stage manager, chief prop man, transportation agent and exploitation man all rolled into one. We used to finish a show, pack up, catch a train, roll out at 8 or 9 in the morning and start all over. A fellow had to learn the show business from the ground up in those days—and today the fellows who had that training don't seem to suffer for want of jobs in this new talking picture thing. Take Walter Catlett, for instance. He was doing one night stands in those days, and so was Willard Mack. It's just the same as any business—there is no royal road to mastery of it. Work does the trick, and work is all that does for him."

Chaney was born at Colorado Springs, Col., and his first job was as a guide on Pike's Peak. Then he became prop boy in the town theater which his brother John managed. He left this to work for a time in an interior decorating house in Denver, but returned to the stage to play the comic in an opera company his brother started. Then followed many engagements with many shows. Some of them went broke and some made money. Chaney drifted along, doing three men's work for half pay or so. Eventually he "joined up" with the Kolb and Dill musical comedy company in San Francisco, drifted to Los Angeles, and observed that the movies were hiring stage directors to be film directors. He went out to Universal, acted a few "bits" to become familiar with the new idea, and then became director for J. Warren Kerrigan. He directed seven Westerners with that star, then returned to acting, scored in "Hell Morgan's Girl," and then made his great hit in "The Miracle Man."

"The Penalty," "Ace of Hearts," "The Shock," and others followed. Chaney was launched to stardom.

THE most difficult role he ever played, from point of makeup and general obstacles, was "The Hunchback of Notre Dame."

"I just wanted to see how little to accept inferior workmanship, or fabric made for selling rather than wearing, just because she doesn't pay a week's salary for each item of her wardrobe. None of the dresses we're mentioning ought to cost over $25 and some quite a bit less. But every one of them should trace its descent from a much more expensive model, and each ought to be of good material, so well made that it won't lose its smartness of line in cleaning.

"Cottons, linens and shantung make delightful little country suits, and such a suit in a dark color can also be worn in town. It is especially noteworthy that this year's shantung in black and dark blue may be found in guaranteed-to-wash versions that are cool, inexpensive and less demanding in the matter of care than almost anything else on the market."

This season, fabric hats are smart both for town and country wear, and they're so much easier to pack and clean and so much more adaptable to varying occasions that every business girl will give them serious thought.

"The shoe made this year favors the single pump, which is a good thing for those of us who can't afford for many pairs as we'd like. Such a shoe, with a heel neither too high nor too slender should be in white linen—the easiest shoe in the world to clean, and one that may be worn for every country occasion except active sport. Even in formal evening dresses in light colors may dance accompanied by these new white linen shoes."

"Evening dresses in plain colors were never lovelier—turquoise blue, dusty pink, greens that are brilliant or soft. They can all be washed in material guaranteed to wash. Black is the choice for a wrap to go with all the light and bright colors."

A few drops of vanilla will improve cocoa.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread box a good washing and sunning at least once a week. If there is any stale odor about it, do not put fresh bread in with the stale.

Polish the copper boiler, then rub it with wet oil. Wrap flat silver in tissue paper and it will be safe to grease lightly with unsalted fat.

Give the bread

Krazy Kat—By Herriman

(Copyright, 1930.)

The Bungle Family—By Harry J. Tuthill

The Old Battle Cry of Justice.

This Comic Appears in One of the TWO
Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

(Copyright, 1930.)

Ella Cinders—By Bill Conselman and Charlie Plumb

Trouble Comes in Bunches.

This Comic Appears in One of the TWO
Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

(Copyright, 1930.)

Can You Beat It!—By Maurice Ketten

(Copyright, 1930.)

Skippy—By Percy L. Crosby

Unanimous Opinion.

This Comic Appears in One of the TWO
Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

(Copyright, 1930.)

Dumb Dora—By Paul Fung

Convalescing.

This Comic Appears in One of the TWO
Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

(Copyright, 1930.)

Toonerville Folks—By Fontaine Fox

(Copyright, 1930.)

Bringing Up Father—By George McManus

This Comic Appears in One of the TWO
Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

(Copyright, 1930.)

Classified Advertising

REAL ESTATE PART HELPS, SERVICE PART

VOL. 82, No. 289.

LETTERS INDICATE BRIBERY IN DEALS FOR CITY-OWNED POWER PLANTS

Revealing Correspondence
Found by Federal Trade Commission in Files of Defunct Foshay Companies in Minneapolis.

"OIL" AND "SUGAR" TO PROMOTE SALES
Sliding Scale of "Brokerage Fees" Rising as Cost of Property to Private Buyer Diminished Is Proposed by One Manager.

By CHARLES G. ROSS,
Chief Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—Clear indications that private power interests have bribed city officials in order to get possession of municipally-owned electric plants are contained in letters recently taken from the files of the defunct W.
B. Foshay companies of Minneapolis by investigators of the Federal Trade Commission.

"Oiling your way through these municipal sales," to use the vivid language of one power company official, appears to have been a fairly common practice. The correspondence makes frequent references to "oil" or "sugar" for avid city councilmen.

All the letters relate to the efforts of the Foshay organization and its utility holding company, the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation, to buy municipal plants in the South and West.
The Foshay allied companies went into receivership last November with the prospect of heavy loss to their security holders. Numerous promotion schemes were embraced in the so-called Foshay business.

Investigation of the companies was undertaken by the Federal Trade Commission as part of its inquiry into the propaganda of electric power interests and their financial practices.

Incidentally, the Trade Commission has discovered that the Foshay organization in 1929 was notified for the purchase of a large number of small newspapers in order, as W. B. Foshay wrote, that it might "have a real power with the small-town people of this country." This project collapsed with the failure of the companies.

"Oiling Way Through."
One of the most illuminating of the letters tells of the maneuverings of the Foshay group, through the utility holding corporation, to acquire the municipal electric light plant at Burlington, Colo. Two other concerns, the Inland Public Service Co., a subsidiary of the Foshay-Morse Co., and the Commonwealth Utilities Co., were also after this plant.

L. E. Lynch, manager of Foshay's public utilities Kansas corporation, outlined the situation in a letter Nov. 25, 1929, to R. J. Andrus, resident manager of the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation. Lynch reported that competitors were in the field and that some of the city councilmen were waiting to make up their minds how to vote.

"I know," he wrote, "that you do not look with favor on the plan of "oiling your way" through these municipal sales, and I agree with you that such a practice is detestable. It has been hard for me to finally be compelled to admit, regardless of my feelings contrary to such practice, that at least eight out of 10 councils I have contacted during my brief acquisition experience can only be handled through the "oiling system."

"I have been approached by a man who claims that he can handle the council for a consideration and he assures me that Burlington will be sold soon and advises me that we lose no time if we really want to acquire the property.
Suggests "Brokerage Fee."
"I am wondering if it would not be advisable to let the man mentioned handle the matter for us as a broker for a regular brokerage fee. It is, and if it is necessary to apply 'oil,' that will be a matter of his and the councilmen's conscience to decide, we to be interested only so far as the amount of the brokerage fee that we pay our agent is concerned."

On Jan. 18, 1929, Lynch wrote to Andrus that the bid of a rival outfit, the Inland Public Service
Co., had been accepted. He com-

Continued on Page 5, Column 2.